MEETING WITH AFGHAN RESISTANCE LEADERS

DATE: October 30, 1985
LOCATION: Cabinet Room
TIME: 11:30-11:50 a.m.

FROM: ROBERT C. MCFARLANE RCM

I. PURPOSE

To meet with the leadership of the Afghan Resistance Alliance to underscore your concern and support for the effort of the Freedom Fighters.

II. BACKGROUND

For the first time since the Soviet invasion in December 1979, the seven main Afghan Resistance parties have come together in a loose Alliance. This Alliance has sent a delegation to the U.S. as part of their effort to raise the international profile of the Afghan cause. They will be meeting with key UN missions and a number of important U.S. officials in the Executive and Legislative Branches. The delegation is led by Alliance Chairman Gulbuddin Hekmatyar. Hekmatyar is very concerned to maintain the integrity and Third World character of the resistance. A brief biography of the seven Resistance Leaders is attached at Tab C. The meeting provides you an opportunity to underscore your concern and support.

III. PARTICIPANTS

List of participants is at Tab B.

IV. PRESS PLAN

attached

Photo opportunity. The Resistance group will meet with representatives of the press as they exit the West Lobby.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

The group will meet you in the Cabinet Room. Talking Points for you to welcome the group are included at Tab A. After brief remarks, you may wish to ask them to briefly characterize the support of their resistance to

Biographic Notes on Afghanistan Resistance Alliance Delegation

October 1985

Engineer Gulbuddin Hekmatyar (Goal bud DEEN Heck mat YAR)
Addressed as: Engineer Hekmatyar

At 38, Hekmatyar is the "grand old man" of Afghanistan's resistance to communist rule. As an engineering student at Kabul University in the 1960s, he was active in religiously inspired student politics and formed his Hezb-e-Islami (Islamic Party) in Pakistan in the late 1970s in opposition to the communist regime which seized power in 1978. His wing of the Hezb-e-Islami is on the "fundamentalist" end of the Afghan politico-religious spectrum, and Hekmatyar believes in a strongly Islamic Afghanistan beholden neither to East nor West. In September of this year, he became the second spokesman of the alliance of Afghan resistance parties formed in Peshawar in May.

An articulate spokesman for his country's cause, Hekmatyar speaks creditable English.

Engineer Abdul Rahim (Ab DULL Rah HEEM) Addressed as:
Engineer Rahim

Engineer Rahim is 35 and is the spokesman in Islamabad for the Jamiat-e-Islami (Islamic Society) resistance party. The Jamiat has an impressive fighting and administrative organization inside Afghanistan and, although professing "fundamentalist" religious views, is in the center of the resistance political spectrum. Rahim has visited the United States before and speaks very good English.

Azizullah Lodin (Az ease ul LUH Low DEEN) Addressed as:
Professor Lodin

Lodin was educated as an economist in Germany and comes from a family which has produced numerous senior Afghan civil servants. He represents the large, organizationally diffuse Harakat-e-Engelabi-ye-Islami (Islamic Revolutionary Movement), which is generally moderate in its political views. He is 46 and speaks serviceable English.

Dr. Zabihullah Mojadedi (Za bee ul LUH Moe ja deh DEE)
Addressed as: Dr. Mojadedi

Mojadedi, a 38-year-old engineer, is the son of the leader of the moderate Jabha-ye-Nejad-e-Melli (National Salvation Front) resistance party and comes from Afghanistan's leading religious family. His English is adequate.

Haji Din Mohammad (Haw GEE DEEN Moe ham MAD) Addressed as:
Haji

Haji Din Mohammad, 34, is a teacher and represents the wing of the "fundamentalist" Hezb-e-Islami (Islamic Party) founded by Yunus Khalis, who preceded Engineer Hekmatyar as spokesman of the Afghan resistance alliance. His capability in English is not known.

Mr. Saljuki (Sal jew KEE) Addressed as: Mr. Saljuki

Saljuki represents the moderate Mahaz-e-Melli-ye-Islami (Islamic National Front), founded by the Afghan religious leader, Sayyed Ahmed Gailani. Before the Afghan-Soviet war, he was a diplomat and served as First Secretary of the Afghan Embassy in Washington. He is believed to reside in New York and speaks English.

Mohammad Yassin Zemeran (Moe ham MAD Yaw SEEN Zeh meh RAWN)
Addressed as: Mr. Yassin

Yassin is a member of the Saudi-backed "fundamentalist" Islamic Union for the Liberation of Afghanistan founded by Abdul Rasul Sayyaf. He is 32 and a teacher of Islamic subjects. His English capability is not known.

Note: The delegation may be accompanied by two interpreters, Nawab Salim (English) and Mohammad Zaman Muzzamil (Arabic). Both are members of Engineer Hekmatyar's Hezb-e-Islami. Professor Zalmay Khalilzad, who teaches government at Columbia and is of Afghan origin, has been serving as the delegation's principal sponsor in his capacity as President of the New York-based Friends of Afghanistan Committee.

H. Res. 300

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

November 12, 1985.

Whereas military forces of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics invaded Afghanistan in December 1979;

Whereas there are at present more than 115,000 Soviet troops engaged in the systematic destruction of Afghanistan through a scorched earth policy which includes the destruction of crops, water, and food supplies, the agricultural infrastructure, and villages, and includes the widespread killing of innocent civilians;

Whereas Soviet tactics in Afghanistan have directly caused the following: a refugee population in Iran and Pakistan of more than three million, the largest refugee population in the world; hundreds of thousands of war-related casualties; deprivation and suffering for most Afghan citizens; and the possibility of large-scale famine;

Whereas Soviet troops and their Afghan proxies have employed the use of chemical weapons against innocent Afghans;

Whereas the human rights abuses perpetrated by Soviet troops against the Afghan population, including women, children, and the elderly, have been thoroughly documented by the report from Helsinki Watch entitled "Tears, Blood and Cries" and by the report on the situation of human rights in Afghanistan prepared for the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations;

Whereas both the United States and the United Nations have repeatedly called for a peaceful, negotiated settlement of the conflict, including the immediate withdrawal of all foreign troops from Afghanistan; and

Whereas no President of the United States has met directly with the head of the Soviet Union since the invasion of Afghanistan in December 1979: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House, in an effort to bring about an
2 end to the massive human rights abuses and murderous poli-
3 cies which the Soviet Union is perpetrating against the popu-
4 lation of Afghanistan—

5 (1) strongly supports President Reagan's intent to
6 discuss directly with Soviet leaders American concerns
7 with the Soviet presence in Afghanistan; and

8 (2) calls upon the President to reiterate the desire
9 of the United States to achieve a negotiated political 10 settlement agreeable to all interested parties in 11 Afghanistan, which settlement should include—

12 (A) the complete withdrawal of all foreign

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 21, 1986

Dear Mr. Omar:

I am writing on behalf of the President to thank you for your thoughtful letter of November 11 in which you expressed appreciation for the U.S. Government's strong stand on Afghanistan and sought assurance that the President would support the cause of Afghan freedom and self-determination in his talks with Soviet General Secretary Gorbachev.

I cannot, of course, comment in detail on what the President said to Mr. Gorbachev during their meeting in Geneva. I can assure you, however, that Mr. Gorbachev was left in no doubt about the strength of American feeling on the need for a withdrawal of Soviet forces from Afghanistan and for a negotiated settlement of the problem along lines demanded by seven successive U.N. resolutions passed with overwhelming (and record) majorities.

You may be certain, moreover, that American support for the cause of Afghan freedom will continue. So too will our efforts to aid the victims of Soviets tyranny and refugees from the Soviet-inspired war. As President Reagan noted in his recent address to the U.N., we will not diminish our support of the Afghan cause until true peace is restored and until the Afghan people are once again masters of their own country.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

The Afghan Democratic Freedom Movement considers it a great privilege and honor to convey to you, Mr. President, and to the First Lady, the Afghan Nation's message that love, joy and peace be yours at Christmas and throughout the New Year.

Mr. President, it was during the holy days of joy, blessings and prayers six years ago that the Soviets brutally invaded a small defenseless nation - that nation shedding its blood and tears - their only crime having been a good and trusting USSR neighbor and a good and trusting USSR friend. Soviet destruction and annihilation is continuing unabated ever since invasion, inspite of the six UN resolutions and world public opinion which demand the withdrawal of Soviet troops from Afghanistan.

Mr. President, your answer through the State Department of November 12, 1985 was indeed responsive to our concerns, especially your emphasis on the four principles of the UN's resolutions regarding Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

We Afghans are grateful that the USA will not abandon the Afghan peoples' struggle for freedom against the Soviet invaders, and America's declaration of readiness to serve as a guarantor of peace. We Afghans trust and have faith in your presidency.

We also trust and have faith that the letter sent to the UN Secretary-General, Javier Perez de Cuellar, and made public in a speech prepared for delivery by John C. Whitehead, Deputy Secretary of State, to the Washington World Affairs Council, supporting a draft text of a detailed instrument that is being negotiated indirectly between Kabul Soviet communist puppet and Pakistan, with the United Nations as a mediator, is in no way a departure from your just and dignified stand for Afghan freedom.

The seventeen million Afghans want peace, but not the peace of surrender. The Afghan nation wants freedom, and totally free elections, and in no way a recognition of the communist Kabul puppet Soviet regime which is merely a Soviet stooge bent to carry out Sovietization of Afghanistan and imposition of a Soviet communist system by force of arms, and as a later springboard for further Soviet adventurism in that region of the world.

President Ronald Reagan
December 20, 1985

The Afghan people hate to see a repetition of the Yalta Agreement in which the Soviet Union deceived the Western Powers, and deprived the Eastern European people of their natural right to free elections. The seventeen million people of Afghanistan demand the right of self-determination, the right to choose their own destiny and form of government based on the principles of Islam and promotion of the dignity and inalienable right of individuals to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness with full preservation of Afghan sovereignty, territorial integrity and freedom.

Mr. President, these are the rights, hopes and aspiration of the over seventeen million Afghans. We trust that the negotiation for a settlement which is going on between the communist Kabul Soviet puppet and Pakistan, and the UN as a mediator, with no true representation from the seventeen million Afghans, in no way jeopardize the spiritual material, and national interest of the seventeen million Afghans. Who speak for the Afghan peoples' interest in these negotiations!

The afghan people are fighting to defend their values and the most precious possession of all -- freedom.

Please, Mr. President, see to it that the Yalta consequences are not repeated once again!

This is the voice of the Afghan people and their messages to you, Mr. President.

Yours truly,

SUBJECT: Reply to Mr. Mohammad Sarwar Omar

This memorandum forwards for appropriate signature an NSC-approved reply (Tab A) to Mr. Mohammad Sarwar Omar, who writes in appreciation of the United States Government's strong stand on Afghanistan.

Dear Mr. Omar:

I write on behalf of the President to thank you for your thoughtful letter of November 11 in which you expressed appreciation for the United States Government's strong stand on Afghanistan and sought assurance that the President would support the cause of Afghan freedom and self-determination in his talks with Soviet Chairman Gorbachev.

I cannot, of course, comment in detail on what the President said to the Chairman during their meeting in Geneva. I can assure you, however, that the Chairman was left in no doubt about the strength of American feeling on the need for a withdrawal of Soviet forces from Afghanistan and for a negotiated settlement of the problem along lines demanded by seven successive UN resolutions passed with overwhelming (and record) majorities.

You may be certain, moreover, that American support for the cause of Afghan freedom will continue. So too will our efforts to aid the victims of Soviets tyranny and refugees from the Soviet-inspired war. As President Reagan noted in his recent address to the UN, we will not diminish our support of the Afghan cause until true peace is restored and until the Afghan people are once again masters of their own country.

Thank you for writing. With all best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

The Afghan Democratic Freedom Movement considers it a great privilege and honor to convey to you, Mr. President, and to the First Lady, the Afghan Nation's message that love, joy and peace be yours at Christmas and throughout the New Year.

Mr. President, it was during the holy days of joy, blessings and prayers six years ago that the Soviets brutally invaded a small defenseless nation - that nation shedding its blood and tears - their only crime having been a good and trusting USSR neighbor and a good and trusting USSR friend. Soviet destruction and annihilation is continuing unabated ever since invasion, in spite of the six UN resolutions and world public opinion which demand the withdrawal of Soviet troops from Afghanistan.

Mr. President, your answer through the State Department of November 12, 1985 was indeed responsive to our concerns, especially your emphasis on the four principles of the UN's resolutions regarding Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

We Afghans are grateful that the USA will not abandon the Afghan peoples' struggle for freedom against the Soviet invaders, and America's declaration of readiness to serve as a guarantor of peace. We Afghans trust and have faith in your presidency.

We also trust and have faith that the letter sent to the UN Secretary-General, Javier Perez de Cuellar, and made public in a speech prepared for delivery by John C. Whitehead, Deputy Secretary of State, to the Washington World Affairs Council, supporting a draft text of a detailed instrument that is being negotiated indirectly between Kabul Soviet communist puppet and Pakistan, with the United Nations as a mediator, is in no way a departure from your just and dignified stand for Afghan freedom.

The seventeen million Afghans want peace, but not the peace of surrender. The Afghan nation wants freedom, and totally free elections, and in no way a recognition of the communist Kabul puppet Soviet regime which is merely a Soviet stooge bent to carry out Sovietization of Afghanistan and imposition of a Soviet communist system by force of arms, and as

A lit red candle in a silver holder, surrounded by holly leaves and berries, set against a dark background. The candle is the central focus, with its flame glowing brightly. The holder is ornate and sits on a matching silver tray. The surrounding foliage includes holly leaves with red berries and pine needles.

We seem to think of Christmas
As a special time,
A season...
But really, it's
much more than that,
Christmas is a reason...
A reason to be joyful,
A reason to believe,
A reason to be grateful
For the blessings we receive,
A reason to have faith and trust
in the Lord above...
Christmas is a reason
To be filled with hope and love.

—HAROLD B. ADLEY

The message of the people of Afghanistan

May you have the spirit of Christmas
which is peace,
the gladness of Christmas
which is hope--

May you have the heart of Christmas
which is love.
