Dear Mr. President:

We are extremely pleased that you have chosen Virginia and Colonial Williamsburg for your Economic Summit Conference in May of 1983.

Thank you for your letter of January 31, 1983, concerning the economic topics for discussion at the Williamsburg Summit.

I fully agree with the basic thrust of your suggestion that, while needing to give some coherence and structure to our deliberations, we should avoid over-compartmentalizing those talks. I will be giving careful consideration to the specific questions you raised in your letter, which I agree could usefully be discussed by our personal representatives at their next meeting in March. UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION OF THE MESSAGE ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES FROM THE PRIME MINISTER OF ITALY, DATED MARCH 7, 1983.

Mr. President

I am very grateful for your letter of January 28, with which you wished to provide me with so preliminary informations concerning the meeting we are to have in Williamsburg under your presidency at the end of May.

I agree with you upon the usefulness of a general exchange of ideas, in view of the above mentioned meeting, which will allow all sides to know - be it only in a general way - the opinion of the others. I would like also to say that your evaluations have been and are so much more useful, I myself having recently met President Mitterand in Paris and Mrs. Thatcher in London and my meeting with the Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany being foreseeable in Rome next spring.

On the other hand we were pleased with the visit of your personal representative Mr. Wallis to Rome, with whom my representative had a long and rewarding conversation regarding those very issues mentioned in your letter and on the general agreements reached last December in Paris concerning the modalities according to which the Williamsburg summit should proceed.

I can now assure that I am in favour of a kind of meeting that omits rigid formalities and pointless superstructures, preferring open discussion on the problems of major economic and political interest. This does not exclude that our representatives will make thorough preparations for the meeting so as to point out the single items of the agenda and the procedure that we should follow.

I agree, moreover not to have this year a press release prepared in its details, provided that at the end of our meeting we agree to issue a point of statement which summarizes - preferably in writing - the main guidelines of our exchange of ideas, the conversations among the Ministers and the resulting plans for action.

Finally I think I can share your intention to leave to our personal representatives, during their meetings of march 17 and 18 in San Diego, the task to formulate into details the themes and questions contained in your letter of January 28: themes and questions concerning the most important economic problems of mutual interest.

In this prospect I hope heartily that our work, well prepared and this year efficiently and pragmatically performed, will be particularly useful and concrete.

I am glad for the opportunity of meeting you in the United States at the end of May; please accept, Mister President, the expression of my cordial and respectful greetings.

Amintore Fanfani

Signor Presidente,

Le sono molto grato della lettera del 28 gennaio con la quale Ella ha voluto fornirmi alcune indicazioni preliminari circa l'incontro che alla fine di maggio avremo a Williamsburg sotto la Sua presidenza.

Sono d'accordo con Lei sulla utilità di uno scambio di idee generali, in vista del predetto incontro, che consenta a tutte le parti di conoscere - sia pure in via orientativa - il parere delle altre. Posso aggiungere che le Sue indicazioni mi sono state e mi sono tanto più utili avendo io incontrato recentemente a Parigi il Presidente Mitterrand e a Londra la Signora Thatcher ed essendo prevedibile per la prossima primavera anche un mio incontro a Roma con il Cancelliere della Germania Federale.

Abbiamo gradito d'altra parte la visita a Roma del Signor Wallis, Suo rappresentante personale, con il quale il mio rappresentante ha avuto una lunga e proficua conversazione vertente appunto sui temi indicati nella Sua lettera e sulle intese di massima prese nel dicembre scorso a Parigi circa le modalità di svolgimento della riunione di Williamsburg.

Posso confermarLe sin d'ora il mio parere favorevole a un tipo di riunione che tralasci rigide formalità e inutili sovrastrutture, dando la preferenza ad una aperta discussione sui problemi di maggiore interesse economico e politico. Ciò non impedirà ai nostri rappresentanti una opportuna preparazione della riunione che metta a fuoco i temi della nostra conversazione e le modalità che dovremo seguire.

Sono d'accordo, inoltre, sulla assenza questo anno di un comunicato stampa dettagliamente predisposto, purchè al termine del nostro incontro venga concordata una dichiarazione congiunta che riassuma - preferibilmente per iscritto - le principali linee direttive del nostro scambio di idee, delle conversazioni tra i Ministri e delle linee d'azione che ne sono scaturite.

Ritengo infine di poter condividere il Suo propósito di affidare ai nostri rappresentanti, nella loro riunione di San Diego del 17 e 18 marzo p.v., una adeguata messa a punto dei temi e dei quesiti contenuti nella Sua lettera del 28 gennaio: temi e quesiti che riguardano i maggiori problemi economici di comune interesse.

In questa prospettiva spero vivamente che il nostro lavoro, ben preparato e condotto quest'anno secondo linee di snellezza e pragmatismo, si riveli particolarmente utile e concreto.

MEMORANDUM FOR WILLIAM P. CLARK

FROM: HENRY NAU HN

SUBJECT: 9:30 Briefing with the President on the Summit

Williamson

At our meeting last Friday, we agreed that Wallis and McManus should meet briefly with the President during one of the 9:30 briefings to outline the main features of the informal, scaled-back Summit we are planning. State has sent forward a request to this effect (Tab A).

It is important to get the President's reactions to these plans since his personal role will be substantial, both in leading the heads only sessions we are planning, and in briefing the press after agreement with his Summit colleagues on a common press line. The idea is to brief the President before Wallis attends the first sherpa meeting on December 11-12. Wallis leaves for Geneva on Friday and the President leaves for South America when Wallis returns. So it should be done this week, if possible.

RECOMMENDATION

That you take Wallis and McManus to a 9:30 Briefing with the President this week.

WHITE HOUSE
SITUATION ROOMMEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Williamsburg Summit

Secretary Shultz has received a report from Allen Wallis on the preparations for the Williamsburg Summit. Wallis' report confirms the impressions the Secretary has received from a number of conversations with the Foreign Ministers of Summit countries, and from Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau. There is a clear desire to pull back from the grand, formal extravaganza of Versailles and return to the simpler format of the original Economic Summit at Rambouillet in 1975. The Secretary is concerned, however, by the skepticism Allen Wallis found among the Personal Representatives as to our ability to engineer an informal, scaled-down Summit.

To reinforce the fact that the President is personally desirous of such a Summit meeting, it would be useful for Allen Wallis to have a meeting with the President and receive firm instructions from him. The Secretary requests that the President see Allen Wallis before the first preparatory meeting, tentatively scheduled for December 11-12.

Dear Mr. President and Friend:

Thank you for your letter of the 16 instant in which you are expounding your ideas concerning the forthcoming summit meeting of the industrialized countries, scheduled for May 28-30, 1983, in Williamsburg.

I have read with interest your thoughts and would like to say that I support the idea of giving back some informality to these meetings so that discussion may be as direct and effective as possible. I, too, believe that it would be extremely confining if we were to tie our exchanges of ideas to rigid conversation patterns or to exceedingly binding working agendas.

It is certainly important to prepare our public to the real substance of these meetings which is, I concur with you, to try to find coordinated solutions for the difficult problems of world economy, which our countries have largely in common, by exercising the collective responsibility that has enabled us in the past to work together successfully.

Ronald Reagan,

Furthermore, I feel that we should devote a part of our exchanges of views also to the more important topics of international policy, as this has been the case during the last three summits. Based on my personal experience, Ottawa and Versailles have been extremely useful from this viewpoint.

I am counting on discussing with you also this topic during my visit to the United States to which I greatly look forward.

I take this opportunity to send you, Dear Mr. President and Friend, my most cordial greetings.

Caro Presidente ed Amico,

La ringrazio della lettera del 16 ottobre scorso, con la quale ha voluto gentilmente illustrarmi le Sue prime riflessioni in merito allo svolgimento del prossimo Vertice dei paesi maggiormente industrializzati, che si terrà a Williamsburg nei giorni 28-30 maggio 1983.

Ho letto con interesse le Sue considerazioni e posso dirLe che convengo sulla opportunità di restituire a queste riunioni un carattere di maggiore informalità, allo scopo di favorire una discussione quanto più possibile diretta ed efficace. Credo anch'io che sarebbe riduttivo legare il nostro scambio di valutazioni a schemi rigidi di conversazioni o ad una agenda dei lavori eccessivamente vincolante.

E' certamente importante preparare le nostre opinioni pubbliche sulla reale essenza di questi incontri, che, concordo con Lei, è quella di contribuire alla ricerca di soluzioni coordinate ai difficili problemi dell'economia mondiale, in larga misura comuni ai nostri paesi, attraverso quell'esercizio solidale di responsabilità collettiva, che già in passato ci ha permesso di lavorare proficuamente insieme.

Penso, inoltre, che, così come è avvenuto negli ultimi tre Vertici, dovremo dedicare una parte dei nostri scambi di vedute anche ai temi politici internazionali di maggior momento. In base alla mia esperienza personale, Ottawa e Versailles, sono stati, sotto questo punto di vista, di estrema utilità.

Conto di poter parlare con Lei anche di questo argomento in occasione della mia visita negli Stati Uniti, cui guardo con la più grande aspettativa.

Colgo l'occasione per inviarLe, caro Presidente ed Amico, i più amichevoli saluti

Dear Mr. President and Friend:

Thank you for your letter of the 16 instant in which you are expounding your ideas concerning the forthcoming summit meeting of the industrialized countries, scheduled for May 28-30, 1983, in Williamsburg.

I have read with interest your thoughts and would like to say that I support the idea of giving back some informality to these meetings so that discussion may be as direct and effective as possible. I, too, believe that it would be extremely confining if we were to tie our exchanges of ideas to rigid conversation patterns or to exceedingly binding working agendas.

It is certainly important to prepare our public to the real substance of these meetings which is, I concur with you, to try to find coordinated solutions for the difficult problems of world economy, which our countries have largely in common, by exercising the collective responsibility that has enabled us in the past to work together successfully.

His Excellency
Ronald Reagan,
President of the United States,
