Dear Admiral Stockdale:

On behalf of the President, I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your recent letter inviting him to attend the dinner and show at the Bohemian Club on December 1.

As much as he appreciates your thoughtfulness and knows he would enjoy such an opportunity, unfortunately, it will not be possible for him to be with you. The President has asked me to explain that he has an extremely hectic schedule outlined for the upcoming winter months, and, therefore, it is necessary for him to forego the acceptance of many appealing invitations, like yours.

In sending his regrets, the President asked that I extend to you and all those in whose behalf you wrote, his warm best wishes.

Sincerely,

FREDERICK J. RYAN, JR.

Dear Mr. President,

This is a special invitation for you to attend the dinner and show at the Bohemian Club on Thursday night, December 1st. It is to be Congressional Medal of Honor night. The Producer/Director is Dick Sands, and I will be the Sire.

We have invited about twenty nationally known and ^{popular?} popular CMH recipients to come, sit at the head table, and be honored and entertained with music, skits and patriotic fare. Medalists will give cameo appearances as they are introduced.

It will be a great night, and one at which the President of the United States, especially a Bohemian one, would be at home.

Very respectfully,

Gene Stockdale
Vice Admiral James (Stockdale)
