Dear Mr. President:

I wish to express my deep gratitude for the gift of your book entitled Abortion and the Conscience of the Nation. There is no doubt that the question of abortion impinges on the welfare of our nation in a very crucial manner.

The immorality of abortion is demonstrated by the natural law and our nation cannot disregard the natural law without paying a very heavy if not disastrous price.

I wish also to commend your courage in making such a forthright statement of your convictions concerning this essential matter. I am confident God will bless you and bless the nation for your stand on abortion.

With renewed assurance of my prayers and gratitude, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

May 24, 1984

Dear Mrs. Reagan,

In May I was one of the recipients who received a landscape award that you presented at the East Garden of the White House. My wife attended this with me and I wanted you to know how very proud we are of you. You and the President represent what America stands for and I was honored to have met you even for so quick a moment.

My purpose of this letter is to express to you what I had intended on saying to you personally last week. When I got to you, however, all I could say was "hello" and "thanks you". Most of all I want you to know that we are praying for you. My wife and I are Christians and believe Christ is the answer. We are thankful for the Christian stands you are taking (many times unpopular) on so many issues and we believe you all are God's chosen leaders for this particular time.

I could go on but mostly I just wanted to say what I failed to say to you personally -
"We love you, support you, and are praying for you".

You indicated last week you had just finished talking to one of your children.
We also are parents and trust all is well with your children. Our prayers go out to them also.

Thanks for having us at the White House and also for the rose plant.

Respectfully,

Dear Tom:

I'm answering your two letters May 23 and 29.
Let me say first how sorry I am about missing you on the June 11 letter. We didn't get handing that over to the campaign people.

There are so d--n many rules and regulations

I'm enclosing a note you can give to Antonio on the presentation of the painting. For the you deserve the bows, I'm giving you the credit for this -- which you deserve.

By the way, we did see "The Natural" -- ran it up at Camp David and we loved it.

Again thanks and best regards.

Mr. President:

The red arrows and question marks on these letters are mine.

I can have the campaign office send him buttons and bumper stickers but I'm sure they would question having some special ones made up with Aguilar's name included with yours.

Because we returned to the White House on the 10th and didn't know of his request to do a message to the radio host, Raul Velasco on the 11th, nothing was done in this regard.

Mr. O'Brien doesn't indicate when Antonio Aguilar will be presented with the painting of the two of you together, however, since Mr. O'Brien supposedly paid $25,000 to have it made up, I think it might be inappropriate to send a note to Mr. Aguilar indicating you were a part of it. If Mr. O'Brien calls me about this and indicates that Mr. Aguilar will be presented with the painting at a specific function, we could have a brief message sent if you want.

President Ronald Reagan
Attention: 16991
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ron:

Great new movie "The Natural." It is natural...like the old movies--no big message, just nice. I don't like Redford's politics but his acting here was not at all liberal. See it, you'll enjoy it.

Good article in "Town & Country" about all of our pals in Santa Yenez. Naturally it talks about your ranch and your being there too.

I'm now beginning to wonder how you do one third of what you end up doing. Just getting the Antonio Aguilar Show moving is a humongous task. Dates are done. Sponsor - Coors dropped out. I'll get him in with Pepsi or Miller now, but Coors, Lord I thought they were for us. Just goes to show you.

Then there is the presentation of our painting to Antonio in June at the Los Angeles Mexican Consulate. I'll get Bill Wilson to be there if he's in town and Brooks Firestone and perhaps Lew Lehrman, plus whoever else you would like. Perhaps a short note from you to Antonio when the painting is presented. Something like, "I hope you like the painting O'Brien and I had done for you, and thanks for remembering me to all your Hispanic and Anglo friends in the U.S." I'm not too good at this stuff, but I do know everyone likes to be appreciated. ←?

Also, Antonio will be on a two hour show on the SIN Network on June 11, 1984, called "Simpres en Domingo" (Always on Sunday). This show has been on air for fifteen years. Raul Velasco is the host. The show will be seen by some 150 million people in Central America, South America, Puerto Rico, Mexico, U.S. and Spain. Velasco will be interviewing Antonio regarding his tour to the U.S., flags from Reagan, meeting in the White House, his feelings regarding our involvement in Central America (pro), the uniting of our countries, and the friendship with a most wonderful and strong President--you.

He would love to present, as a surprise, to Raul Velasco a message similar to those you did in December. Naturally, stating something about your dear friend, Antonio. I must admit these people do go in for pomp and niceties. My personal feeling is that it can do no harm and possibly help to cut further depth into the Democratic vote.

Like I said, doing this small job is an unreal experience. Goodbye hunting, riding, fishing, golfing, racing at Del Mar, vacation and leisure. Hello political world. Meet someone who is winging it and trying to run it like an ordinary business. I now have adjusted. I've got it down to a combination of a lottery, a football game, an old Western where the hero kisses the horse, and a business. Am I on the right track?

Take care, Amigo, and thanks again for being so thoughtful to all our R.V. pals. (Re your buckle and pictures -- thanks to you too once again, Kathy O.)

All our best to Nancy,

As always,

President Ronald Reagan
Attention: 16991
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ron:

From my vantage point on the 50 it appears that my (only mine??) conviction that there are termites in the White House still holds true. Mr. Baker points at Casey, is that a team player? Not in my book he isn't. So the trouble lies within. Casey and Clark would go through the gates of hell for you. Would Bush and Baker?? I think not. It's the old story, "Don't tell me you love me, show me."

I assume that the Party (I'm new to this, I have always been a cash and carry man) will get me a few sacks of Reagan's team buttons and bumper stickers for the Hispanics. Something like, "Double A's Amigos for Double R." The Hispanics love toys, pins and patriotism. The U.S. flag and your team on pins or bumper stickers. ← ?

The nickname I've given the House of Representatives appears to be catching on out here. Perhaps I shouldn't have thought of it. Some of your loyal people will no doubt be maligned. The conservative ones, however, won't be too upset. I once said in Washington, D.C. there are now two houses, the President is in the White House and Tip is in the Red House.

Volker is doing just what I thought he would do. (His pal has gone back to Harvard...at least that's a blessing and thank God for that blessing.) Paul is still on David's payroll and after Volker leaves he will still be on the self same payroll. Will Casey or Clark? I think not. Will Bush and Baker?? I rest my case.

The Russians have been defused or thwarted by you time and again. So I expect trouble for you to come in Dallas (massive amounts of Iranian students at SMU). Also the Philippines, Nicaragua-Honduras border, from Libya and Syria and the Gulf of Oman (Strait of Hormuz). More than likely all of the above. Anything and I mean anything to get rid of you. Nice letter to start your week with...truly an upbeat.

Good question to ask Mr. Mondale, "What would you have done differently regarding the 007 massacre, sir? " Then give him an umbrella from Neville Chamberlain Collection!

May 29, 1984

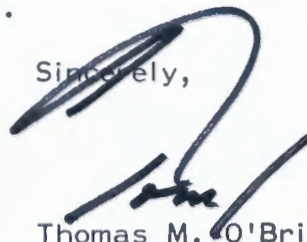

All the women I know love you and respect you. The Hispanics are changing to us too. The Jewish friends (and they are numerous) are in your corner now.

I wonder now what J.J. will do if all promises to him are not kept. You don't see him dropping out do you? Wonder why? Lord, I wonder how I got so far being as naive as I once was?

If there is anything else you need done, want to know, news from the street, or people to be taken under my wing before the tour with Antonio Anguilar begins, let me know and it's done.

All of our love and best to Nancy.

Sincerely,

I didn't know whether I might be sending you pins that were not worthy of your collection or not of any use to you.

Now you mentioned post cards - look what happens.

USIA and State have requested that we provide a Presidential inscription in a presentational book for King Olav V of Norway, to be presented in connection with the opening in Oslo on June 23 of a major Norwegian exhibition on emigration to the U.S. (Tab B). The book, "We Americans," published by the National Geographic Society, is attached at Tab A.

The recommended inscription follows:

To His Majesty, King Olav V --
With best wishes and highest esteem on the occasion of the opening of the exhibition, "The Journey to America," June 23, 1984, in Oslo.

RECOMMENDATION

That you obtain the proposed Presidential inscription and return the book to us as soon as possible. (USIA hopes to be able to transmit the book to Oslo by June 1.)

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable
Robert C. McFarlane
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
The White House

FROM: Charles Z. Wick CW
Director

SUBJECT: Presidential Inscription in Presentation
Book for King Olav V of Norway

With this memorandum I request your assistance in obtaining an inscription from President Reagan in a book to be presented to King Olav V of Norway. The occasion for the presentation will be the opening in Oslo June 23 of a major Norwegian exhibition on emigration to the United States, titled "The Journey to America." The presentation to the King of a book inscribed by President Reagan would make an extremely positive public affairs impact on this important NATO ally.

The exhibition commemorates the lives and experiences of the nearly 800,000 Norwegians who emigrated to the United States during the last century. This major undertaking, a multi-media event, is sponsored by the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Culture and Science, the University of Oslo Press, and "Aftenposten," Norway's most prestigious newspaper. King Olav V and other members of the royal family serve on the honorary committee, and the King himself will open the exhibition. USIA is also supporting the exhibition with a private sector grant, seminars, films and cultural groups.

Our Embassy in Oslo feels that the connections of kinship and culture between Norway and the United States, which historically have been strong and extensive, have recently been on the wane, particularly among young people. The Norwegian press is particularly negative about U.S. policies in Central America, and there is a vocal minority in opposition to Norwegian membership in NATO. The exhibition will serve to rekindle interest among Norwegians of all age groups in these close ties. In addition, it will help to draw Norwegian attention to positive aspects of the U.S.-Norwegian relationship, rather than to the frequent negative media treatment of U.S. policies.

I agree with the Embassy that a brief message from President Reagan inscribed in the book, We Americans, to King Olav would add immeasurably to the occasion of the exhibition's opening. Suggested language for the inscription follows:

To His Majesty, King Olav V --

With best wishes and highest esteem on the occasion of the opening of the exhibition, "The Journey to America," June 23, 1984, in Oslo.

A copy of We Americans is enclosed. We would like to forward the inscribed book to the Embassy in Oslo by the first of June, in good time for the exhibition opening. I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

|| The State Department Bureau of European Affairs concurs in this request.

Dear Mrs. Reagan

A very belated thank you so much for the twin Cabbage Patch Kids you so lovingly gave our twins
while they were in St.
Francis Hospital last December.
Needless to say, on Christmas morning there was tremendous excitement as our three older girls were allowed to twins are growing beautifully and Christopher's open heart surgery won't take place for a year or two. Our five can wait that long for Chris, it would be easier to "talk him through it".

Please remember Jim and all the little sick children in your prayers.

Thank you again.

Dear Mrs Reagan,

Very many thanks for the beautifully engraved box which you so kindly sent to me. It is a fitting reminder of a memorable occasion.

Thank you also for your kind letter. In the College we all greatly appreciated that you took the difficult decision to make the presentation of your Father's portrait yourself. It was, of course, an emotional few minutes, but that is as it should be. We shall treasure the memory of your visit; your Father's portrait which has joined our other distinguished fellows will keep that memory green.

Again, very sincere thanks and best wishes for the future.

Dear Tom:

Thanks very much for the news story about our Amigo Tony Aguilar and all the good news from our Hispanic friends. Back here we only hear and see the other side as Obledo and his Democratic Hispanic organization sound off. According to them, I'm public enemy number one.

Now about the painting -- and you make it sound magnificent -- I think the loan idea is really great, but why don't we just wait until after the election and then decide. In the meantime if it isn't any trouble, yes, I'd like to see a snapshot of it. You have made me very curious.

Tom, thank you so much for all you are doing, and God bless you.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Tom

Thanks very much for the news story about our Amigo Tony Aguilar and all the good news from our Hispanic friends. Back here we only hear & see the other side as ~~BB~~ O'Blade & his Dem. Hispanic organization sound off. According to them Jim's people's enemy number one.

Now about the painting (and you make it sound magnificent) I think the lean idea is really great but why dont we just wait until after the election & then decide. In the meantime if it isn't any trouble, yes I'd like to see a snapshot of it. You have made me very curious.

Tom thank you so much for all you are doing & God bless you.

Sincerely Ron
