MEMORANDUM FOR FRED RYAN

FROM: JIM MANNING JM
RE: CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING
DATE: OCTOBER 21, 1987

We have been contacted by the Starlight Foundation which grants wishes for terminally ill children. They have a little boy, Tommy Valenti, who is 5 years old and terminally ill with cystic fibrosis.

His wish is to meet the President and Mrs. Reagan. Since his birthday is near Christmas, we thought it would be nice to include him in the Christmas tree lighting.

Dear Mr. Manning,

Once again I find myself writing to you on behalf of the Starlight Foundation. This time, we have a request for a wish from a little boy named Tommy Valenti from Jackson, New Jersey. Tommy will be five years old on December 23, 1987. He has Cystic Fibrosis. Tommy's first wish is to meet President and Mrs. Reagan. Evidently Tommy is quite taken with them and watches them on T.V. whenever he gets the chance. I asked his parents how Tommy became so aware of the President and Mrs. Reagan at such a young age. They said he became infatuated with them at the time of the space shuttle accident.

I know how much this would mean to Tommy, as he insisted, not only to his parents, but to the Starlight volunteer that he preferred to meet the Reagans over a trip to DisneyWorld.

Your attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

With my best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr President & Mrs Reagan,

Jenny and I wanted to thank you both very much indeed for the lovely porcelain bowl given to us on the occasion of your visit to London. It is a beautiful souvenir for us of a very special occasion.

We felt very privileged indeed to be there with you. There was such a happy, warm and friendly atmosphere both at No. 10 and the Guildhall, and

I am sure at Buckingham Palace too.

Your speech, Mr President, at Guildhall moved us all. It was superb and I have heard nothing but praise for it.

We are so delighted that the visit to Moscow went so well and that this has been so clearly recognised in the Press on both sides of the Atlantic. You both deserve our sincere thanks and congratulations.

With warm regards and respects, in which Jenny joins -

Yours sincerely

Anthony Acland
