GENERAL

The greatest care will be exercised by all concerned in the preparation of this form to obviate the necessity for returning it for correction. It will be carefully scrutinized after completion for errors and omissions and compared with the prescribed entries made from it on the service record, which will be opened before the enlistment record is forwarded. The following instructions governing the preparation of this form will be carefully studied. This form will be used for enlistments in the Enlisted Reserve Corps only.

PREPARATION OF THE ENLISTMENT RECORD

1. One original record only will be made in the case of an applicant for enlistment or reenlistment. Retained copies of enlistment record, when required to be made under regulations and instructions of the War Department, will be marked "Copy" at the top of the first page.

2. The period of enlistment shall be three (3) years, except in the case of persons who served honorably for at least four months in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, who may be enlisted for one (1) year.

3. Enlistment will be made for service in a particular section of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, the section for which enlistment is to be made to be determined in accordance with paragraph 3, AR 150-5. The enlisting officer will note on the enlistment record the section for which enlisted.

4. The name, race, home address, last service in the Army, and declaration of the applicant will be filled out at the place where the applicant is accepted for enlistment or at place of enlistment if directly enlisted. The physical examination at place of acceptance will be filled out only when enlistment is delayed under paragraph 10, AR 150-5. The remainder of the record will be filled out at the place of enlistment. Particular care will be taken to determine the bona fide home address.

5. The correct name of the applicant will be ascertained and it will be written and signed exactly as indicated in each case. A trial signature will be required before signature is made on the enlistment record.

6. Service in the Army includes service in the Regular Army, National Guard, called or drafted into Federal service, National Army, Enlisted Reserve Corps, or Regular Army Reserve.

7. Race will be indicated as white, colored, Indian (referring to American Indian only), Puerto Rican, Cuban, Mexican, Hawaiian, Filipino, Japanese, Chinese, East Indian, etc. As here employed, "colored" will include the American negro, mulattoes, and others of negroid race, or extraction. For mixed races, except mulattoes, the nationality will be considered as synonymous with the race; for example: Mexican, Filipino, etc. Asiatics, other than members of the white or Caucasian race, will as a rule be indicated by nationality; for example: Japanese, Chinese, East Indian, etc.

8. The declaration of the applicant will be taken before he has been stripped, and any statement indicating a possible cause for rejection will be followed up by searching inquiry and examination and the result noted on the record.

9. The physical examination will conform to the provisions of AR 40-105. Deviations from normal, though not a cause for rejection, will be noted under the proper headings.

10. Under the heading "Remarks" (page 2) will be noted any authorized special assignment or waiver of defects, the nature of the authority being stated. The space under "Remarks" will also be used for continuation of a statement for which the allotted space is insufficient and for any further statement that the examining officer may desire to make.

DISPOSITION OF THE ENLISTMENT RECORD

11. The completed enlistment record will be forwarded to the corps area or department headquarters to be filed until the reservist is ordered to active duty for mobilization in the event of an emergency.

12. When a reservist is ordered to active duty for mobilization in event of an emergency, this form will be forwarded to the commanding officer of the organization, post, camp, or station to which the reservist has been ordered to report. The record will not be so forwarded when the reservist is ordered to active duty for training or instruction or to other active duty in time of peace.

13. Upon receipt of the enlistment record by the commanding officer of the organization, post, camp, or station to which the reservist has been ordered to report, the indorsement to The Adjutant General will be completed and the record forwarded with the initial return and roster or the first return and roster rendered after the reservist reports.

14. When the reservist fails to report within a reasonable time after ordered to active duty, the enlistment record will be returned by indorsement to the corps area or department commander. In such case the indorsement to The Adjutant General will not be made out until the reservist has reported under the order.

15. When the applicant is rejected the record will be marked "Rejected" at the top of the first page and forwarded to the corps area or department headquarters to be filed.
