Dear Archbishop Iakovos,

I appreciate your heartfelt words about American-Greek relations.

We greatly value our relationship with Greece and the deep, historic ties that bind our two countries. Let me assure you that we will not take any precipitous actions.

At the same time, we are concerned that the Greek and American governments have different perspectives on some vital issues. For our part, we are committed to narrowing these differences and look forward to working with you toward this end.

Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT C. McFARLANE

SIGNEDFROM: PETER R. SOMMER Peter

SUBJECT: Reply to Archbishop Iakovos

Greek Archbishop Iakovos sent you a mailgram, as has become his custom, immediately following press reports earlier this month about U.S. misgivings over Greek government policies. Given Iakovos' proclivity toward developing a pen-pal relationship with you, I purposely delayed preparing a suggested reply.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the Tab I reply to Iakovos, which, while polite, makes it clear that we are concerned with the policies of the Greek government.

Dear Mr. President,

My visit to Greece was highlighted by a meeting with Prime Minister Andreas Papandreu. He sends you his greetings.

I was encouraged by his remarks that face-to-face personal communications with you could bring the United States and Greece closer together.

I look forward to seeing you during your tribute to the Minority Business Community.

With warmest personal regards,

MEMORANDUM FOR JAMES A. BAKER III
ROBERT C. McFARLANE

FROM: FAITH RYAN WHITTLESEY JW

SUBJECT: Accusation of Prime Minister Andreas Papandreu
New York Times - October 4, 1984

I suggest that we demand an apology from the Greek Prime Minister for his statement that the KAL plane was on a spying mission for the United States, or recall our Ambassador. To allow such a charge to go unanswered at the highest level will appear to be an admission of guilt and will have a serious negative impact on our efforts to counter Soviet disinformation generally.

The conservative leadership has urged the President to act immediately.

GREEK SEES PLOT IN K.A.L. DOWNING

Papandreou Charges Korean Passenger Jet Was on Spy Mission for the U.S.

ATHENS, Oct. 3 (UPI) — Prime Minister Andreas Papandreou charged today that a Korean Air Lines Boeing 747 that was downed over Soviet territory by a Soviet warplane last year was on a spy mission for the United States.

"It is now a fact that it was carrying out a spying mission for the American C.I.A. and that it had actually violated Soviet airspace to spy on targets," he told members of Parliament from his ruling Pan-Hellenic Socialist Movement.

The speech was made public by the Greek Information Ministry. In it, Mr. Papandreou did not offer proof for the accusation, which was similar to one that has been made by the Soviet Union and that the United States has denied.

Last year, Mr. Papandreou refused to join Greece's Western allies in condemning the downing of the Korean airliner on Sept. 1, 1983, in which 269 people were killed.

"On all points where we differed with our allies in NATO and the E.E.C., we were justified. We did not succumb to hysteria," Mr. Papandreou said, referring to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the European Economic Community.

Accuses Allies of Double Standard

He accused Greece's allies of using a double standard in imposing sanctions on Poland following the declaration of martial law in that country in December, 1981, but not acting against the military regimes in Turkey or Chile.

Mr. Papandreou is scheduled to visit Poland on Oct. 22, when he would become the first NATO head of government to do so since the proclamation of martial law there in December, 1981.

"We condemned the regime in Poland but we stressed the need not to have sanctions," Mr. Papandreou said.

"Turkey did not suffer any sanctions while it was an oppressive military regime, but Turkey belongs to the West. Chile suffers no sanctions imposed by the democratic West. Does Poland suffer only because it belongs to the other side of the dividing line?"

The Prime Minister reiterated that Greece would only resume discussions with Turkey if the Turkish Cypriot declaration of independence issued last November is withdrawn and if Turkey respects Greek rights in disputed areas of the Aegean Sea.

Mr. Robert C. McFarlane
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Bud:

Late last week, at the request of a mutual friend here in New York, I met with Andonis Samaras, a member of the Greek Parliament from the New Democracy Party. *

Mr. Samaras outlined to me his concerns vis-a-vis the United States relationship with Greece and how that relationship might affect upcoming elections to be held in the spring. His concerns over U.S. policy seem valid to me and his request was to meet with someone in the White House to make his concerns known. My suggestion was that he speak with either you or someone on your staff who would be familiar with the situation. Mr. Samaras will be in America only for another week to ten days and, therefore, would like to know if it is at all possible to meet in the very near future before his departure for Greece.

If there is anything you can do to assist him I would be most appreciative. Jeff Lord of my staff is in contact with Mr. Samaras, who is travelling on the East Coast, and would be happy to make the arrangements if contacted by someone from your staff. Jeff can be reached here in my New York office (212-484 7715).

Again, thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

NSC 8408434
