PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN
WHITE HOUSE DC 20500

THERE IS NO MORAL, ETHICAL, OR POLITICAL BASIS TO RECONCILE THE NAZI'S TYRANNICAL OCCUPATION OF OUR ALLIES AND THE SLAUGHTER OF MORE THAN SEVEN MILLION PEOPLE. YOUR PLAN TO HONOR NAZI WAR DEAD IS AN INSULT TO THOSE WHO SERVED AND DIED FOR OUR COUNTRY, AND YOUR DECISION NOT TO VISIT THE DEATH CAMPS RANKS YOU AMONG THOSE WHO SUPPORTS THE NAZIS THROUGH COMPLACENCY. THE NAZI'S AND THEIR SUPPORTERS DESERVE A PLACE OF PERMANENT DISHONOR IN THE CONSCIENCE OF HUMAN KIND. VISIT ARLINGTON, VISIT A V.A. HOSPITAL, VISIT THE DEATH CAMPS, COMPREHEND THE HORROR, THEN TRY TO LAY YOUR WREATH AT THE FOOT OF NAZI GRAVES.

I AM AMAZED ABOUT YOUR PLANNED VISIT TO HONOR THE GERMAN SOLDIERS WHO DIED IN WORLD WAR II. I REMEMBER THEM TOO WELL, DEAR PRESIDENT. THERE IS NOTHING TO HONOR EXCEPT THE VICTIMS WHO DIED - THE AMERICANS, FRENCH, ENGLISH AND ALL OTHERS WHO FOUGHT AGAINST THE AGGRESSOR IN WORLD WAR II TO FREE PEOPLE AND NATIONS. I AM ON THE PRESIDENTIAL TASK FORCE AND CAMPAIGNED FOR YOU, BELIEVING IN YOUR FAIRNESS TO ALL. I AM NOT UNAWARE OF THE POLITICAL IMPLICATON IN GERMANY OF THIS PROPOSED VISIT TO A GERMAN AND WWII CEMETARY. OVER THE PAST 15 YEARS
I HAVE SPENT MOST OF THE WINTER IN ST MORITZ AND HAVE A NUMBER OF GERMAN FRIENDS. IT SEEMS WHAT IS CALLED FOR IS A LESS ABRASIVE ACTION
FOR BOTH SIDES.

A VISIT TO ADENHAUERS MEMORIAL WITH A STATEMENT REMEMBERING THE MARSHALL PLAN COULD SUFFICE. IF IT WERE WORDED IN A MANNER
CONSIDERING THE GERMAN PEOPLE THAT THE INDIVIDUAL GERMAN WAS NOT ABANDONED AFTER THE WAR, THAT WHEN THEY NEEDED HEALING THE MOST WE CAME TO THEIR AID.

VISITING A CEMETARY IS REPEATING PAST ERRORS THAT I DON'T THINK THE GERMAN PEOPLE WANT. IT IS NOT CONSTRUCTIVE.

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Please forgive this gratuitous suggestion. It may have some value.

The reaction to your announced trip to Germany and a visit to "that cemetery" is regrettable. Perhaps the original choice of itinerary was dubious as well, but that's another matter.

Response from The White House up to the moment suggests you have lost the initiative in a very delicate area.

My suggestion is to make the point that the visit to the cemetery is not to "honor" those dead, but to mourn them.

Real and symbolic mourning does not imply honoring the subject. In this case, the gesture would relate to the entire tragic consequences for all the parties. The rationale goes along these lines -- I'm sure your staff can weave the ideas into a more suitable mode.

It is very "American" for us to be active and respectful about our own values and to offer them to all men everywhere. Even to fallen enemies.

Offering those values has been the character of our relations with West Germany ever since VE-Day. The Marshall Plan. The Air Lift. EEC. Assistance in military and economic matters. I'm sure there are fuller and better illustrations.

Pause.

Imagine what the world would be today if that kind of partnership had begun in 1919 instead of 1945.

This cemetery and many, many others would not exist. The travesties and horrors that were visited on all the parties would not have occurred. The cemeteries; the camps; the ovens; indeed -- even the veterans hospitals and all those ramifications need never have occurred in the light of these forty years of enlightened cooperation.

15 April 1985

That those things occurred is something to mourn. Nothing to do with "honoring" anybody or anything.

To take this position brings other benefits:

It is respectful to the Germans who can only regret that history as well. It does not criticize.

It is meaningful to the Russians in that it says we deplore what happened -- even though we were powerful enough to win the struggle -- and to save them in the bargain.

It says to anyone that defense of our values makes us strong enough to prevail against any threat. And at the same time, it says that our values inherently are strong enough to restore and inspire those who were defeated.

And, it seems to me, the position disarms those in this country who would make capital of your gesture as it is framed today.

We know who we are and we have proven what we can do.

We invite all people to share in these values -- with full independence and integrity.

We mourn those who did not and may not believe this.

Mourn.

I apologize for the somewhat melodramatic phrasing of this idea. Time is short. From the Sunday news coverage (14 April), the choices seem to be to call off the visit which would be awkward, to proceed as planned and take the considerable lumps, or try a revision of the nature I'm suggesting.

I won't belabor the point: It flies or it doesn't. Seems to me that it is very hard to disarm those who are linking your gesture with a forgiveness for Malmedy unless you can regain the initiative.

Respectfully,

Joseph A. Keegan
