MEMORANDUM FOR FRANK C. CARLUCCI

FROM: FRITZ W. ERMARTH A

SUBJECT: Appointment Request: Lord Carrington

Lord Carrington will be back in town on May 7 to attend a Eurogroup Conference sponsored by CSIS. Because of the Conference schedule and fact that Secretary Shultz will be tied up with Genscher most of the day, Carrington is not seeing Shultz. Carrington has specifically asked to meet with you. Its purpose is clearly to discuss INF and SRINF.

Pub Mahley concurs.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRANK C. CARLUCCI

FROM: WILLIAM A. COCKELL WR

SUBJECT: Presidential Meeting Request -- General Wolfgang Altenburg, Chairman of NATO's Military Committee

CJCS has approached us to arrange a meeting between General Altenburg (Chairman, NATO Military Committee) and the President during General Altenburg's Washington visit. We have confirmed with OSD that they support such a meeting.

NSC staff strongly support the meeting as an opportunity for the President to show personally his support for NATO defense and strategy. This would be beneficial, given the legislation we are likely to encounter on European troop strength later this year and pockets of European unease over U.S. arms control positions. It would also highlight the President's Commander-in-Chief role, which has received relatively little emphasis or visibility over the last several months.

As indicated on the attached schedule proposal (Tab I), the meeting could be brief and consist of a small party. NSC staff (Mahley) would provide talking points for the President if the meeting is approved.

In draft
Peter Sommer concurs.

Keel, Alton

Dear Don,

Just a short note to say how deeply grateful I am for your support and confidence. I realize that without your help the appointment to NATO would not have been possible.

Don, I know how difficult this period has been for you. You have handled it with grace and dignity. You have my unflinching respect. I certainly realize, perhaps better than most, how much you mean to this President and how much he depends on you. I am sure that you draw comfort from the fact that he appreciates what you have done for him and respects and trusts you enormously.

With great respect and appreciation,
God Bless — Al

U.S. MILITARY CAPABILITIES IN SUPPORT OF NATO (U)

It has been a continuing objective of this Administration to maintain the strength and vitality of all of our Alliance relationships. Several events require that we undertake a comprehensive review of our current force plans and programs for U.S. military capabilities in support of the NATO Alliance:

- Progress continues toward a U.S.-Soviet agreement on Intermediate-range Nuclear Forces (INF), which, if concluded, will be implemented over the next 3-5 years. This agreement would eliminate one class of forward-deployed nuclear weapons. Given current conventional force imbalances and the future potential threat to NATO, prudent planning suggests the need for adjustments in U.S. and Allied contributions, both nuclear and conventional, to assure the continued viability of the NATO military strategy of flexible response.
- Continued progress in the NATO High Level Task Force on Arms Control and the Conventional Stability Mandate Talks indicate the possibility of follow-on negotiations concerning conventional forces. Until such talks become a reality and NATO-Warsaw Pact conventional force issues are addressed effectively through negotiations, continuing programmatic responses will be required of both the U.S. and our Allies to address the existing imbalance.
- While the military implications of an INF Treaty have been carefully considered in the formulation of our negotiating positions, the FY88-89 defense program, now pending before Congress, was developed before the outlines of an eventual INF Treaty had become clear. In addition, the FY90-94 planning process being executed under NSDD-219 (i.e., the Net Assessment of military capabilities and the Recommended Military Strategy developed by the Chairman and the Joint Chiefs of Staff) did not explicitly consider the impact of an INF agreement. Similarly, the NATO force planning process may require mid-course adjustment to respond in a timely manner to the changing nuclear and conventional force requirements of the Alliance.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Declassify on: OADR

- If and when Senate consideration of an INF agreement begins, the military implications of the agreement will be a major issue. As a result of military analysis developed for the negotiations, both SACEUR and the Joint Chiefs of Staff have concluded that our relative military posture facing the threat to NATO in a post-INF environment could be degraded unless certain identified measures are carried to fruition. A careful review of our plans and programs is, therefore, in order. (C)

In view of the foregoing, I direct the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of Energy and the Director, Office of Management and Budget, to undertake a prompt review of ongoing U.S. and NATO force planning. This review should be designed to ensure that we have identified the nuclear and conventional capabilities most needed to support NATO's military strategy as we anticipate making the transition to a post-INF environment; and that such capabilities are included, as appropriate, in the pending FY88-89 budget and associated FYDP. The review should focus in particular on the appropriate phasing of changes to U.S. military capabilities that will maintain our contribution to the execution of Alliance military strategy during and after the phaseout of INF forces. (U)

The Secretary of Defense will report to me by December 1, 1987, on the results of this review and measures undertaken to implement this Directive. (U)
