June 30, 1988

The Honorable Allan Kranowitz
Special Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Allan:

It has recently come to my attention that the Philadelphia Boys Choir will be traveling to Ireland to perform in the national celebration of the millennium of their capitol city, Dublin, on July 10, 1988.

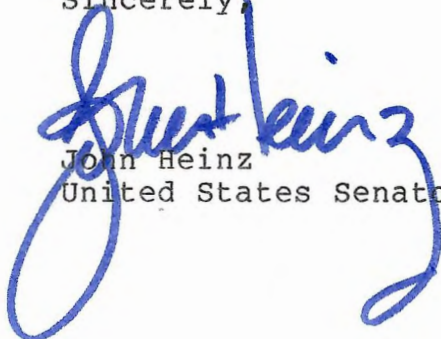

This group has requested that some kind of token be delivered from the President to the Irish people during their presentation. It is a momentous occasion and quite an honor to be included in such a celebration.

The Philadelphia Boys Choir has served as ambassadors of our country on numerous previous occasions bearing gifts from the White House. These dignitaries include former President Sadat, the Imperial Family of Tokoyo, President Kenyatta of Nairobi, the Royal Family in Sweden, the Governor of the state of New South Wales in Australia, the Royal Family of Thailand and many more. I would greatly appreciate it if their request could be honored before their date of departure.

The current director of the choir is Dr. Robert G. Hamilton, a life long republican. He can be reached at 215-222-3500. If you or your staff could respond to Dr. Hamilton and advise my staff member, Kelly Karl, of the status of this request, again, much appreciation would be in order.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

John Heinz
United States Senator

The Honorable Ronald W. Reagan
President

Dear Mr. President:

At the request of the Lord Mayor of Dublin and their Millennium Committee, the Philadelphia Boys Choir and Chorale has been invited to represent the United States at ceremonies marking the 1,000th Anniversary of the City of Dublin.

The Choir is scheduled to perform at the Mansion House on Sunday, July 10, 1988 at ceremonies attended by the Lord Mayor, Irish national government officials, foreign dignitaries and an anticipated crowd of two million spectators.

During its 20 year history, the Philadelphia Boys Choir has traveled some two million concert tour miles as goodwill ambassadors. During our travels we have been privileged to represent the United States and to present gifts on behalf of the United States to foreign leaders in the Soviet Union, the People's Republic of China, Japan, Poland, Kenya, Thailand and Egypt.

For this very special Millennium celebration in Dublin, we request the honor of presenting a gift to the people of Ireland from you and the American public in acknowledgement of this historic anniversary.

We feel proud and honored to have been invited to participate in the very special event, and look forward with great anticipation to your response.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Heinz:

Following discussions with Kelly Karl in your office, I am enclosing a letter to President Reagan requesting a gift for us to present to the people of Ireland as they celebrate the millennium of their capital city, Dublin.

We look forward with great anticipation to participating in this once-in-a-lifetime event, and we are hopeful that as an American of Irish ancestry, President Reagan will also appreciate our great interest in offering a gift to the people of Ireland for this momentous anniversary.

We are grateful to you for assisting us with this project, and we are hopeful that the White House will look favorably on our request.

Looking forward to a positive reply, I am
