Sandy:

What Mary Kay was calling about is that we have shown the Foreign Minister of Thailand on the block for March 22 and it should be April 22.

Also, she said it was agreed that he would get the last 10 minutes of National Security Briefing that day but it should be shown as an appointment - not like we sometimes do, having him come in but not show it. So that would make him 9:50.

OK?

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

February 25, 1988

TO: FREDERICK J. RYAN, JR., Director
Presidential Appointments and Scheduling

FROM: PAUL SCHOTT STEVENS PS

REQUEST: Short meeting/photo opportunity with Foreign Minister Siddhi Savetsila of Thailand.

PURPOSE: Thailand is a treaty ally of the United States and a front-line state in Southeast Asia.
Strains have entered into our relationship due to declining aid levels, declining off-take of refugees for resettlement, protectionist provisions of the Farm Act and domestic political pressures on the Thai Government for supporting us so strongly. Foreign Minister Sitthi is one of our strongest supporters and a short meeting would shore him up politically and reassure the Thai Government of our strong and continuing commitment to them.

BACKGROUND: The Foreign Minister will be coming to Washington for consultations during the period April 21-24.
While here, he will call on the Secretary of State and others for talks. The foreign policy and national security community feel strongly that a short meeting with the President would be an extremely useful vehicle to reassure the Thai Government at this difficult time.

PREVIOUS PARTICIPATION: The President has met the Foreign Minister during his Asian trip to Bali in 1986.

DATE & TIME: April 21 or 22, 1988. DURATION: 10 minutes.

LOCATION: Oval Office.

PARTICIPANTS: President, Vice President, Secretary Shultz, Howard Baker, Ken Duberstein, Colin Powell,
Assistant Secretary Sigur, James Kelly, Richard Childress.

OUTLINE OF EVENTS: Photo Opportunity and short meeting.

REMARKS REQUIRED: Short talking points to be prepared.

MEDIA COVERAGE: Press and photo release.

RECOMMENDED BY: State, DOD, Colin L. Powell.

MEMORANDUM FOR PAUL SCHOTT STEVENS

FROM: RICHARD CHILDRESS RC

SUBJECT: Visit of Foreign Minister Siddhi - Thailand

State will be forwarding a recommendation for a short meeting (10 minutes) between the President and Foreign Minister Siddhi of Thailand during his visit to the United States in April (Tab II).

Foreign Minister Siddhi has been one of our strongest supporters in Southeast Asia and has taken great political risks to stand with us on regional/global issues. Such a meeting would not only reinforce him at home, but provide an opportunity for us to help solidify the U.S.-Thai relationship that has recently deteriorated due to budget cuts, refugee matters and the protectionist provisions of the U.S. farm bill.

Should we be denied time through the normal scheduling procedures, given the importance of this signal, we would request that General Powell favorably consider NSB time.

M. Batjer concurs. (Jim Kelly concurred before departure.)

MEMORANDUM FOR COLIN L. POWELL
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Call on the President by the Thai Foreign Minister

The Foreign Minister of Thailand, Siddhi Savetsila, will be in Washington April 21-24. The Department proposes that he pay a brief (five to ten minutes) courtesy call on the President Thursday, April 21 or Friday, April 22.

Siddhi has been one our staunchest and most effective allies in the senior ranks of the Thai Government for a number of years. Recently, for example, he has taken the lead in efforts to secure better protection of U.S. intellectual property rights and to preserve first asylum in Thailand for Indochinese refugees despite extensive popular opposition on both fronts. He has been willing to take serious political risks on issues such of these, which are high priorities for the Administration, both because he appreciates their importance to us and because he believes a true friend should honor commitments. The opportunity to meet the President, even if only briefly, will demonstrate our appreciation for the role he has played, encourage him to continue his efforts, and enhance his effectiveness within the Thai Government.
