MEETINGS WITH ALGERIANS AT CANCUN

Main Objectives

-- Impress upon the Algerians that the U.S. does take seriously problems of the developing countries.

-- Avoid any open confrontation on the subjects of Global Negotiations and the North-South dialogue.

Bear In Mind

-- Foreign Minister Ben Yahia is convalescing in Paris from injuries sustained in his recent airplane crash. The delegation is comprised largely of technicians.

-- The primary Algerian objective is launching Global Negotiations at the UN as soon as possible. The Algerians see us as the most serious obstacle to this objective and at odds with its allies on this issue.

Checklist

-- Inquire about the Foreign Minister's condition. Note that Americans have not forgotten his personal role in resolving the hostage crisis.

-- Hear out Algerian views. Assure them that the U.S. is concerned about problems of development even if we do not always agree with Algeria on how to solve them.

-- Suggest that more attention should be given to the potential of the private sector in increasing efficiency in developing countries and facilitating technology transfer.

-- As appropriate, stress importance of reaffirming agreement to have no agenda and no communique at the Cancun Summit. Express our hope that it will change tone of multilateral consultations.
