Dear Jimmy:

I am delighted to congratulate you as the members of the Pelican camp at the Bohemian Grove honor you on your recent promotion as the first reserve Four-Star General in the United States Air Force.

As a great aviation pioneer and as one of the nation's most outstanding military heroes it is so appropriate that you were the first to achieve this distinction. In both the Pacific and the European Theaters of World War II you made extraordinary contributions to the victory that was ultimately achieved. You have continued your work as a leader of American industry and as a continuing supporter of a strong and free Republic.

All citizens of these United States share in according you the recognition that you now receive from your campmates. They know that it is because of people like you that this is still the greatest nation in the world and the best hope for the future of all mankind. The example that you have set for this and future generations gives us all the more confidence that this will continue to be the case.

Nancy joins me in sending best wishes and in again extending congratulations on your promotion and for this latest tribute. God bless you.

Sincerely,

General James H. Doolittle

Dear Pete,

As you requested, I am sending you this note to confirm our conversation yesterday.

On Saturday, July 13, the members of Pelican camp at the Bohemian Grove will honor our campmate, Jimmy Doolittle, for his recent promotion to General.

Because Jimmy is a hero to us, as well as to the nation, we want our tribute to be as memorable as possible. I would, therefore, be grateful if the President would write a letter that would be read at the occasion. If you would get the letter to me, I will get it to the Grove.

It seems especially appropriate that we have some ceremony at the Grove, since Jimmy's fourth star was pinned on him by the most famous Bohemian of them all.

Sincerely,

John J. O'Connor III
