Major General.

The Adjutant General.

G. C. MARSHALL,

Chief of Staff.

- Gen. B: Say, the Governor of Georgia said that he is very much in earnest about trying to get this WAC recruiting going, you know, and he's got a show coming up from Cochran Field and he tried to send a telegram yesterday, I think - tried to get you people to send Clark Gable down here. You turned him down on that, so now they want to try to get another of your movie stars and I told him I'd put in a call and see if I could help on it. I suppose you get plenty of calls like that
- Gen. G: Oh, yes. We have calls continuously for some of these celebrities and wherever possible we send them down unless it violates some policy of General Marshall.
- Gen. B: Yes, well this fan they'd like to get now is a fellow I never heard of - a First Lieutenant Ronald Reagan, and he's got a movie actor for a wife called Jane Wyman. I think they'll fix it up so she'll come if he can come. That'll be two of them. (over)
- Gen. G: What time did you want them down there?
- Gen. B: What's that?
- Gen. G: What time and where did you want them?
- Gen. B: Well, let's see. They wanted them on the 18th - they've got this air show coming up from Cochran Field which they're going to have at the auditorium or somewhere. They're going to have these people at the same time. It's all in the interest of getting these Air WAC's going.
- Gen. G: I will pass this information on and see what we can do about sending him down there on the 18th.
- Gen. B: That will be fine.
- Gen. G: Will it be a day show or a night show?
- Gen. B: The Governor is interested and I'd like to keep him interested.
- Gen. G: All right. And we, I know, in the Air Forces are doing what we can now to help out on this WAC recruiting.
- Gen. B: Yes.
- Gen. G: And it's been working out very well. I understand that within the first five days, we recruited 980.
- Gen. B: Good.
- Gen. G: So it's working out all right, and we'll do what we can on this.
- Gen. B: How is Arnold these days?
- Gen. G: Very good. He's up in New York today, but he's getting along very well. Thank you very much.
- Gen. B: Tell him to stop at Atlanta sometime. I've been here for two years and he's never been here that I know of.

Gen. G: Well, I'll give him that information.

Gen. B: All right. Thank you very much.

Gen. G: We'll let you know about it.

Gen. B: Good.

The Air Forces is very keenly interested in the WAC recruiting program and we would like very much to make Lt. Reagan available; however, present War Department policies prohibit our doing so. General Arnold has, however, communicated with the Governor advising him an effort will be made to furnish a suitable officer for the occasion.

I sincerely appreciate your interest in the matter and assure you that the Air Forces is always anxious to cooperate to the fullest extent possible in connection with such programs as is being held on the 18th.

INSTRUCTIONS
(SEE AR 600-185)

1. Efficiency ratings comprise an evaluation of an officer in comparison with others of the same grade. In a large group of officers, such as are normally assigned to an infantry division, the law of averages will establish that about twenty percent of the officers of each grade may be superior; about twenty percent may be in the two lower classifications of very satisfactory and satisfactory (Unsatisfactory officers should be identified promptly and reclassified); the remaining sixty per cent who constitute the mass of thoroughly capable officers would fall into the excellent category. Commanders of regiments and large units must analyze the reports prepared within their organization and whenever the distribution varies markedly from the above the reasons must be sought. It is highly important that officers who are genuinely superior be identified by their ratings so that their talents may be fully utilized. It is also important to identify those officers whose qualifications and standards of performance of duty are above the minimum required, but who are clearly below the standard established by the mass of officers of their grade. A series of reports of an individual officer should present a highly accurate evaluation of his worth.

2. Prior to filing in Section G of this report consider carefully the following definitions and the numerical values assigned to each. Keep them in mind when rating, taking into consideration the length of service of officer you are rating and the opportunities afforded him, which might have a bearing upon his performance of duty, personal characteristics, or professional qualifications.

Unsatisfactory: Performance of the particular duty reported upon or personal characteristics or professional qualifications below minimum standards—inefficient.

Satisfactory: Performance of the particular duty reported upon or personal characteristics or professional qualifications up to minimum standard—passably efficient.

Very Satisfactory: Performance of the particular duty reported upon in an efficient manner. Personal characteristics, professional qualifications, or efficiency above that acceptable as satisfactory.

Excellent: Performance of the particular duty reported upon in a very efficient manner. Personal characteristics, professional qualifications, or efficiency above very satisfactory but below superior.

Superior: Outstanding and exceptional performance of the particular duty reported upon. Personal characteristics, professional qualifications, or efficiency above that considered excellent.

Unknown: To be used in all cases in which the reporting officer has had insufficient opportunity during the period covered by this report to observe the officer reported upon to permit rating as to the performance of the particular duty, personal characteristics, or professional qualifications.

1. Attached herewith is WD AGO Form 73 with recommendation for promotion of Captain Ronald W. Reagan, O-357403, AC, to the grade of Major.

2. Although there are several Captains on this Base who rank Captain Reagan by reason of time in grade, it is felt that the responsibilities of the duty assignments performed by this officer warrant his promotion to the recommended grade. He has demonstrated that he possesses the necessary qualifications for the duties of Base Adjutant, in addition to performing the duties of Personnel Officer at this Headquarters.

3. The responsibilities of the above assignments have been carefully considered in relation to those of other Captains assigned to this Unit, and it is believed that this recommendation for promotion is for the best interests of this organization.
