FIRST LADY'S COFFEE FOR MRS. INGVAR CARLSSON

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS

- o I am pleased to see you again, and I thank you for your kindness in Stockholm. I will long remember the wonderful hospitality of the Swedish people.
- o I was deeply impressed by Sweden's innovative and sensible anti-drug programs. I was especially moved by the home for young mothers who pledge to overcome their drug habits before being reunited with their children.
- o I was happy to meet King Carl Gustav and Queen Sylvia in Sweden. I understand they will come to the U.S. next April to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the founding of the New Sweden colony. I look forward to seeing them again at that time.
- o I know you are a librarian by profession, and I'm happy to hear you will have a chance to visit the Library of Congress. I also understand you will visit the Washington Monument, the Air and Space Museum, and the American Film Institute. You will be seeing some of the best things Washington has to offer.
- o I also understand you'll be visiting the Chicago area, where you lived in 1960-61 while you and the Prime Minister were at Northwestern University. That should be a very nice trip, and perhaps, a sentimental journey.

We were pleased that you and Mr. LaMonte could join us for this special occasion, and I was delighted to have you as my dinner partner. Your warm sentiments meant a great deal.

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Reagan,

My friend, Erik LaMonte, and I had such a wonderful time at the State dinner for Prime Minister and Mrs. Carlsson last week. We thank you for sharing this memorable occasion with us!

As for myself, I was a bit overwhelmed at first to be seated next to you, Mr. President, and then utterly charmed by your warmth and wit. I really enjoyed your company, in fact, I had a smashing good time!

I have enclosed a recording of my music that includes the Symphony for which I won the Pulitzer Prize and "Celebration," the piece I wrote to inaugurate the Circle Theater in Indianapolis -- that's the 1916 "movie palace" I told you about that has been restored and is enjoying a new incarnation as a beautiful concert hall and home of the Indianapolis Symphony. I hope you both enjoy it.

With all good wishes and warm regards,

Yours sincerely,
