Your Beatitude:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of November 17 to President Reagan.

The United States is deeply conscious of its responsibilities to continue to help the people of Lebanon in their valiant effort to restore peace, security and well-being to all inhabitants of your beautiful country. With this in mind, President Reagan recently asked Ambassadors Philip Habib and Morris Draper to return to the area to step up our efforts toward the early departure of all external forces from Lebanon. We will not be deterred from pursuit of this crucial objective.

Allow me to take this occasion to express on behalf of the President our very best wishes for a holiday season of joy and faith for all the people of Lebanon.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Letter to the President from the Maronite Patriarch of Lebanon

The Maronite Patriarch of Lebanon wrote to the President recently thanking him for U.S. efforts in Lebanon. We believe that a direct reply from the President to the Maronite Patriarch's letter would not be appropriate and that a response from Nicholas A. Veliotes, Assistant Secretary, Bureau for Near Eastern and South Asian Affairs, would suffice. With the consolidation of the Lebanese central government and our desire to enhance the status of President Gemayel, it is important that we deal with the heads of various religious and political groups at a level well below that of the President. A copy of our response is attached.

PATRIARCHATUS MARONITARUM ANTIOCHIÆ TOTIUSQUE ORIENTIS

November 17, 1982

Dear Mr. President,

Permit me on the occasion of our celebration of Christmas to offer to your gracious wife, your family and yourself, the good wishes and prayers of the Assembly of Catholic Patriarchs and Bishops in Lebanon of which I am President.

It is now fourteen months since you so warmly received me with His Eminence, Terence Cardinal Cooke, at your Official Residence. On that occasion we visited you in the hope of future, courageous action on the part of your Government in favour of troubled Lebanon. You have not failed us.

We commend especially the tireless efforts, fortunately successful, of your personal envoy, Ambassador Philip Habib and those of Ambassador R. Dillon and of Mr. M. Draper a) in saving West Beirut and its inhabitants; b) in bringing about so successfully the evacuation of thousands of the Palestinian Resistance fighters; c) for enabling the Central Government to deploy the Lebanese Army in areas it dared not enter for years past, and d) for making it possible to go ahead with the Presidential Elections, thus obviating the real danger there was of a power-vacuum after September 23.

For what has been accomplished Mr. President, we are deeply grateful as we look forward to the return of Ambassador Habib to help rid the country of all the foreign forces which occupy it: Palestinians, Syrians and Israelis.

The President,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.,
U. S. A.

We know too of your proposals to settle the Palestinian question. Indeed we pray that in the months ahead your courage will find a wise response on the part of all those on whom rests the obligation to find a just solution to the problem of this dispossessed people, for we know that until the Palestinian problem is settled, there will be no true peace in the Middle East.

Finally, let me say that our Assembly greatly appreciates the warm welcome extended to our young President, Cheikh Amine Gemayel, when he visited you recently. It heartens us to know that he has the backing and good-will of your Government. He will need it to withstand the pressures from within the Arab World and pressures from our neighbour, Israel, - pressures which would put him unwisely in the position of having to resist the one to please the other, when what we need is the opportunity to live in peace with all our neighbours.

We pray that, during these coming Holy Days, the year ahead will be a wise one for all of us; that the Wisdom of the Almighty guide us, so that the Peace of the Lord of Justice and Love reigns all round us. We pray, especially, Mr. President, that your own good endeavours be blessed with abundant success.

Yours very faithfully,

Antoine Pierre Khoraiiche

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Draft Reply to Letter of UN Secretary General
Perez de Cuellar

Attached at Tab 1 is a draft letter for signature by the President. It responds to a letter that UN Secretary General Perez de Cuellar sent to the President June 24 on the Lebanese situation, which is at Tab 2.

With Ambassador Habib's work in Beirut seemingly close to success, we recommend that this response be sent now. It would demonstrate that our efforts to meet the same concerns that the Secretary General expressed in his letter have been untiring and ultimately fruitful. At the same time, the letter would stress the continuing gravity of the situation.

We submit this draft for review and approval on behalf of the President.

DRAFT LETTER

Dear Mr. Secretary General:

I greatly appreciated your letter of June 24 in which you reiterated your deep concern about the situation in Lebanon. Your decision to send a letter to Prime Minister Begin of Israel, which you quoted, and a separate letter to President al-Assad of Syria was an important contribution to the continuing international effort to end the hostilities.

As you know, Ambassador Philip Habib has worked unstintingly on the scene in Beirut, as my personal representative, to bring about a ceasefire and a withdrawal of all foreign armed forces from Lebanon. At this moment, Ambassador Habib's efforts seem close to success, though in a situation of such gravity we must continue to ensure that there is no miscalculation which could undermine the progress he has made. I can assure you that the United States will continue to do all in its power to achieve the goals of Security Council Resolutions 508, 509 and 516 at the earliest possible time and to restore fully the

His Excellency

Javier Perez de Cuellar,

Secretary General of the United Nations, sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of Lebanon. We expect to consult closely with the United Nations in this effort.

New York.

I particularly share your anguish at the suffering of the civilian populations in Lebanon. The humanitarian program launched by United Nations agencies and other relief organizations is a vital element in the early restoration of tranquillity to that deeply ravaged land. As you know, the United States is participating actively in this work and we are grateful for the leading role of the United Nations in the program.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 1982

Dear Mr. President,

I recall our recent conversation and in particular our discussion of the situation in Lebanon. I know that you share my own very great concern about developments in that country and the fact that the situation has deteriorated further since we met.

I have today addressed the following message to Prime Minister Begin of Israel:

"I recall our recent conversation about the situation in Lebanon. Since that time there would appear to have been a renewed escalation of hostilities and a situation in which the cease-fires announced are no longer effective.

"You are certainly aware of the resolutions of the Security Council relating to this matter. I am deeply concerned at the present situation and all the possibilities and dangers inherent in it if the fighting continues. I have particularly in mind the enormous hazards which inevitably threaten the civilian population. I know that you too are deeply concerned with this aspect of the present situation.

"I therefore appeal to you to do everything in your power to bring about an urgent end to the present hostilities so that solutions to current problems can be negotiated. You will understand, I am sure, why I have felt obliged to communicate with you in the present extremely ominous situation, which also has serious implications for world peace."

His Excellency
Mr. Ronald Reagan
President of the United States of America

A handwritten mark in blue ink, resembling a stylized letter 'A' or a similar symbol.

I have also addressed a message to President Al-Assad of Syria on the present situation in Lebanon.

Reports now being received indicate that the matter is of the greatest possible urgency. I would therefore hope very much that you would see fit to support my appeal in any way that you can. I would also like to recall that the United Nations has Military Observers in the Middle East who, subject to the agreement of the Security Council, would be immediately available to assist in implementing a cease-fire if one could be brought about. I have already made this suggestion on 13 June to the Security Council.

With warm regards,

Javier Pérez de Caéllar
