President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

It would be an insult to the kidnapped hostages held captive by Arab terrorists in the Middle East and to the families of the 240 U.S. Marines killed by Arab terrorist elements, who bombed the U.S. Embassy in Lebanon and murdered dozens of civilian American travelers at the Athens and Rome Airports on kidnapped planes and ships and in public places in London, France, Germany, Italy, etc. for the Reagan Administration to consider reparation payments to the families of passengers who died on Iran Air Flight 655.

All of the fanatical killer squads supported by Iranian "trainers", "advisers" and with Iranian financial help have been supporting Iran's warfare against the U.S.A. with guerrilla warfare attacks on international fronts.

When Allied war planes bombed Dresden, Hamburg, Berlin and other German cities during World War II and thousands of civilians died in such actions, the press laid the blame on Adolf Hitler, who provoked the war knowing that civilians would suffer as in all wars, rather than blame the Allied Air Force.

After the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki that caused the deaths of enormous numbers of civilians, the world pointed the blame to the Japanese war lords for provoking the war in the Pacific and as in all wars civilians suffer immensely.

If over 200 passengers died in a downed plane that appeared as an enemy attack on electronic devices, the lives of hundreds of U.S. Navy personnel were of utmost and absolute consideration. If a blame must be made it should be pointed to the Ayatollah Khomeini for his continuing war against the United States.

Surely, no thought of reparation should be made while kidnapped hostages have been tortured, murdered and kept in abominable isolated conditions and other innocent Americans continue to be killed through Iranian supported terrorist bombings, highjackings and other violent actions.

EMBASSY OF JAPAN
WASHINGTON, D. C.

July 12, 1988

Dear Mr. President:

I have the honor to transmit to you, enclosed herewith, a message from Mr. Noboru Takeshita, Prime Minister of Japan.

Allow me to extend my warmest regards.

Respectfully yours,

Taizo Watanabe
Charge d'Affaires ad interim of Japan

The President
The White House

EMBASSY OF JAPAN
WASHINGTON, D. C.

July 12, 1988

Dear Ron:

Thank you very much for your letter of July 9, 1988, concerning the Security Council deliberations on the Iran Air 655 incident.

It is an extremely tragic and unfortunate incident. My Government strongly desires to see that it does not lead to an escalation of the existing tension in the Persian Gulf. Accordingly, I highly appreciate the sincere attitude and prompt action you have taken upon its occurrence, as evidenced by your expression of regret over the loss of precious lives, initiation of an investigation to bring forth all the relevant facts, readiness to cooperate with an investigation by the International Civil Aviation Organization, and offer, from a humanitarian point of view, of ex gratia compensations for the bereaved families.

In addressing this unfortunate occurrence, I agree to your basic line of approach in the coming Security Council deliberations, which is, as I understand, that it is important for the Council to discuss the need to prevent a recurrence of a similar incident and to make its deliberations as constructive as possible, by focusing its attention on the basic problem of the tension in the area resulting from the Iran-Iraq conflict, and that the Council should not be utilized as a means of disturbing the interests or the military presence of the West in the Gulf or obstructing the full implementation of Resolution 598. I believe in the meantime that it is also important to preserve the unanimity of the Security Council on the conflict. From these considerations, it seems to me that the issuance of an agreed statement by the Security Council President as you suggest is an idea worthy of careful consideration.

On the other hand, my Government considers it a matter of great importance for the West to maintain some sort of communication with Iran, in order to prevent that country from becoming isolated at this time when it is beginning to make moves for improving its relations with the West. It will indeed enable us to sustain the international momentum toward an early implementation of Resolution 598, without losing sight of our primary objective of ending the Iran-Iraq conflict.

BY ds DATE 5/19/2027

Iran, in preparing for the coming Security Council meeting, still seems to be exploring various possibilities and studying options, and the state of affairs surrounding the Council deliberations is fluid as yet. I believe it is now all the more important for our two countries to maintain close contact.

Sincerely,

/ S /

Noboru

One Hundredth Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Monday, the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight

Concurrent Resolution

Whereas the Congress has, by concurrent resolutions adopted in 1982 and 1984, and in numerous other appeals, declared that it holds the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i faith, Iran's largest religious minority;

Whereas the Congress has condemned the Government of Iran's actions against Baha'is on account of their religious beliefs, and has urged the President to work with appropriate foreign governments and with the United Nations in efforts to appeal to the Government of Iran concerning the Baha'is;

Whereas nearly 200 Iranian Baha'is, including many elected leaders of the religious community, have been executed since 1979, on account of their religious beliefs, thousands more have been imprisoned, and many subjected to torture and demands for recantation of their religious faith; and

Whereas the Government of Iran has not only undertaken to deprive Baha'is of civil, economic, and social rights, but also has in many cases confiscated Baha'i community and personal property and denied access for Baha'is to education, employment, pensions, insurance, and other benefits available to other Iranians: Now, therefore, be it

*Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring),
That the Congress—*

(1) continues to hold the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including Baha'is, in a manner consistent with that Government's obligations under international agreements guaranteeing the civil and political rights of its citizens;

(2) welcomes reports of the recent release of Baha'is from prisons in Iran and takes note of the decline in the numbers of Baha'is and others executed in that country;

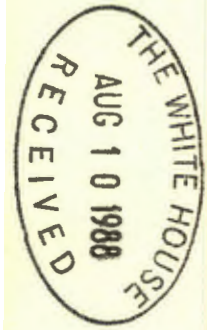

(3) expresses the hope that these developments may indicate a greater willingness on the part of the Government of Iran to act in a manner consistent with its obligations under the various international agreements to which it is a party;

(4) urges the Government of Iran to restore fully the rights guaranteed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, including freedom of thought, conscience and religion, education, and equal protection of the law; and

(5) calls upon the President—

(A) to continue to observe and report on developments affecting the Baha'i minority in Iran, and to monitor developments affecting Baha'is in countries in which their rights might be abridged on account of their religious beliefs;

(B) to cooperate with other governments in continuing to make appeals to the Government of Iran concerning the situation of the Baha'is;

S. Con. Res. 120—2

(C) to initiate and support efforts in the United Nations and its agencies on behalf of measures to promote the protection of the religious rights of Baha'is; and

(D) to provide, and to urge others to provide, for refugee and humanitarian assistance for those Baha'is who flee their homelands for reasons of religious repression.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this concurrent resolution to the President.

Dear Mr. Arab:

The White House has asked me to respond to your letter of June 6 transmitting your thoughts on Iran's internal situation.

As in other parts of the world, the U.S. believes that it is up to the Iranian people to determine what form of government they want and which individuals they want as leaders.

Sincerely,

MEDIA RELATIONS

Dear President,

I am an Iranian Journalist living in exile in the UK and despite my age I am in constant opposition and struggle against the present regime in Iran and its fanatical leader, Khomeini and his false brand of Islam, its fanatical teachings and lack of respect for human rights and freedom of speech.

The Moscow summit between President Reagan & General Secretary Gorbachev gave the world much hope for peace and prosperity it was like a light at the end of a dark tunnel for all peace lovers of the world, and for the first time in many decades the church bells in the Soviet Union rang and people freely went to worship and give thanks for peace and freedom. There were only a few short comments in Iran in the news services no pictures of the new warmth and friendship were shown as Iranian network television.

In Iran, its fanatical rulers are more dangerous than any nuclear warhead that the super powers are trying to eliminate, because they are full of hatred and contempt for progress of the world, achievements in education, sanitation, technological advances and any improvements in struggling nations who are trying to rid themselves of old superstitions and enter the new era, as all these improvements will result in their inability to spread their teachings.

These people claim victory in Iran, as an outside conqueror may have done, they are committing such crimes in the name of Islam and Shiyate whose effect are worse than any nuclear radiation and will spread to all over the Middle East and Gulf regions very shortly. In Iran they rule by fear and are trying to spread their false teachings outside Iran by means of terrorism and hostage taking, thus holding democratic Governments to ransom.

The Ruling Mullahs have closed all doors to and from Iran.

With the income that Iran has from its oil reserves and other mineral and agricultural and human resources, it was and should have been a fast progressing and improving country, but unfortunately under these people Iran has been turned into ruins and they wish to take it back 1400 years (beginning of Islam) and not forward which should be the goal of all nations and its leaders, they are not satisfied with what they have done to Iran, they wish to spread it all over the region.

E Board

Ten years ago the World Mass Media (Western especially) either out of foolishness or due to some wrong policies of some western industrialised nations put all their resources of the disposal of Khomeini and his followers and some even compared him with Ghandhi as prophet of peace. Look at what has happened now! There are more than two million Iranian refugees all over the world most of them highly educated and professional people, mass executions of many trained and skilled people in Iran, large political executions, more than three million refugees inside Iran because of the war which only goes on because of Khomeini's insistance and stubbornness.

Where are all the reporters who used to roam the streets of Teheran and other Iranian Cities? Any reporter that is allowed inside Iran will only see and report what the ruling mullahs allow them, if they put one foot wrong they are either put on the next plane out, or worse are beaten ruthlessly by revolutionary guards and faithfuls of Hizbollah, in Iran today even the possession of Radios with SW capabilities are prohibited, please make your own deductions.

I am sending you a cutting from an Iranian newspaper which shows the pictures of many of its rulers, there are many more of these people spread all over Iran, every town, village and city, they are also spread in many parts of Afghanistan, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Kuwait, U.A.E., Bahrain, Lebanon, the Persian Gulf State, Tunisia, Iraq, Sudan, Syria, Egypt and under different guises in many European and U.S. cities, they are worst than any nuclear warhead and God forbid, if they succeed they will cause a greater catastrophe and genocide than Hitler and Nazis.

In the name of humanity and all that is good and decent in this world, please help us to rid our country and the world of this parasites, the first step is stop selling them arms and put pressure on them by accepting the U.N. resolution for ceasefire, the rest will be done by the Iranian people and the remnants of a once great and glorious armed forces of Iran.

Thank you for your time and patience.

Yours faithfully,

HASSAN ARAB.
