Biography

Biography

Ralph C. Bledsoe was born on October 10, 1933, in Waco, Texas. Bledsoe received a bachelor's degree from Texas A & M College in 1955, an MBA from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1962, and a master's degree and Ph.D. from the University of Southern California in Public Administration in 1968 and 1971, respectively.

Bledsoe worked for much of his academic studies at the System Development Corporation between 1958 and 1971. Mr. Bledsoe was a senior faculty member at the Federal Executive Institute in Charlottesville, Virginia from 1973 to 1980, and was director of the Emergency Management Institute in Emmitsburg, Maryland from 1980 to early 1981.

Mr. Bledsoe served as a consultant in the Office of Policy Development in early 1981 before joining the White House staff as Associate Director of the Office of Planning and Evaluation where he helped build the support system for the cabinet council system and helped evaluate the various cabinet councils.

In 1982 he was appointed Special Assistant to the President and Executive Secretary to the newly formed Cabinet Council on Management and Administration - responsible for government-wide policies pertaining to Executive Branch management, administrative and personnel issues, and supervising the "Reform 88" Task Force. At this time, he moved back to the Office of Policy Development as the Assistant Director Office of Policy Development, Management and Administration, and from 1984-1985 he was the Executive Director of the Federal Property Review Board.

In 1985 he became Special Assistant to the President, Executive Secretary, Domestic Policy Council until late 1988 when he left the White House.

In 1988, Bledsoe was selected as the first Director of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum where he oversaw the final construction of the building, the dedication of the Library, opening of the facility, and the early years of the Library and Museum. He transferred with the National Archives to Washington, DC in 1994 and was part of a reorganization task force creating a new management structure and functions for the National Archives and Records Administration. He retired from federal service sometime in the early 2000's.

Scope and Content Note

Scope and Content Note

This is the third of four Ralph C. Bledsoe collections at the Reagan Library. This collection is Bledsoe's work product from his time as Executive Secretary of the Domestic Policy Council. The Library has two more White House staff collections for Bledsoe, one for his work product within the Office of Planning and Evaluation, and one for his work product within the Office of Policy Development. In addition, the Library has a personal papers collection for Bledsoe consisting of pre-presidential material on management and public administration and post-presidential material from his tenure as Director of the Reagan Library.

Given filing practices at the White House, there was some carry over of material from Bledsoe's three offices. The Library placed carry-over material within collections based on the last dating found within folders.
