JAB--

One thing the leaks on tuition tax credits have shown us today is that there will be a focus by press and Congress (Moynihan) on the anti-discrimination provision in our bill.

We need to make sure the President's speech and our fact sheet squarely address this point, and that we are not open to criticism for the provision not being strong enough (as we describe it).

Then we need to make sure the bill is drafted to cover this tightly, too.

- ✓ 1. Review President's schedule (attached).
- ✓ 2. Budget-- strategy to counter stories of "cuts" in Social Security. (Suggest our leaders on the Hill must lead in defending this plan.)
- ✓ 3. Unemployment figures-- out this morning. Story is playing that rate will be highest since WWII. Use to underline need for budget and failure of Demos to address the problem?
4. School Prayer-- how will language for amendment be drafted, checked, etc?
5. Eureka speech-- stories of plan to propose "deep cuts" at a later date. How is speech coming?
6. Van de Water-- has nomination been resubmitted? If so, then we should move on a discharge petition.
7. DOJ legal opinions-- got prominent play. What was reaction from our conservatives?
8. Defense budget-- status of effort to recommit?
9. Lugar Bill-- with endorsement by House Demos, this looks like a sure bet to pass in some form.
10. Cigarette warning labels-- is testimony still set for Monday (Senate Commerce Committee)? Are we testifying?
