The House will consider a series of appropriations bills and covert activity in Nicaragua; it will also hold a hearing on CBI and mark-up domestic content legislation. On Wednesday, the conference committee on the budget is expected to convene. Also, the Democratic caucus will discuss capping the tax cut at $700.	Duberstein

7. Summit : Regarding speculation about a possible Reagan-Andropov summit, it was stressed that staff should not comment on the subject.
It was also mentioned that recent news articles about disagreements between NSC and the State Department are not helpful, and staff were asked to cooperate in refuting such rumors.
8. Arms Control : NSC meeting on START will be held tomorrow. Assistance from the Communications office will be required in order to plan for post-meeting press questions.	Clark Gergen
9. Budget : It was mentioned that Congressman Jim Jones had stated that the President was calling for a $280B tax increase. However, we should make clear that our increase is contingent on not achieving the necessary level of spending cuts.	Speakes

SENIOR STAFF MEETING ACTION ITEMS (6-9-83)

ITEMS	ACTION
1. Tomorrow's Schedule : A White House photo will be taken during tomorrow's lunch with The Roundtable.	Speakes
2. Legislative Calendar : It was mentioned that the IMF authorization has passed the Senate, and that Radio Marti has been reported by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Also, Hatch plans to mark-up school prayer today, and he will be asked to report out both versions.	Duberstein
3. Supplemental : Hatfield reportedly will not delete money from this on the Senate floor, but feels he can hold the line and then cut in conference committee. We are still sending a veto signal, though we should keep a low public profile for now.	Duberstein
4. Budget : Guidance continues to be that it is hard to see how the conference can produce an acceptable result given the two versions with which it is dealing. We will continue to seek responsible budgetary levels through the appropriations process and, if necessary, through use of the veto.	Duberstein Speakes
5. ICC Deregulation : It was suggested that various White House offices should look closely at the current proposal on this. The central question involves the speed of continued deregulation efforts.	Rollins Cicconi
6. Acid Rain : The importance of this issue was re-emphasized in the wake of a new government study.
