2. Economic Figures : The Consumer Price Index for April was up 0.5%, an annual rate of 5.6%. The CPI figure year-over-year is 4.5%, demonstrating continued progress on inflation. The energy and water appropriations bill will also be taken up, and seems acceptable to the Administration.	Oglesby
4. Defense Authorization Bill : We are stressing the need to conclude work this week largely because the authorization itself is needed, and because we would not want to allow time for erosion of our MX support.	Oglesby
5. Central American Aid Request : The supplemental for Central America is not expected on the floor until Thursday. It was also mentioned that our request for a closed congressional briefing has been granted, and has been set for Wednesday morning.	Oglesby McFarlane

SENIOR STAFF MEETING ACTION ITEMS

ITEM	ACTION
1. Today's Schedule : A decision will be made this morning on whether to cover the World Trade Week ceremony.	Speakes
2. News Conference : It was noted that, by all accounts, the President's performance last night was superb.
3. Legislative Calendar : The Senate passed Agent Orange legislation yesterday, and will work today on the debt limit and on a reciprocity bill. After those subjects, they may proceed to disability legislation and the Wilkinson nomination. Consideration of the bankruptcy bill was halted yesterday, with the leadership urging that Packwood and Thurmond both withdraw their respective amendments.	Oglesby
The House will debate the defense authorization bill tonight and tomorrow, where we hope for final approval. It was noted, though, that the authorization for anti-satelite weapons is encountering problems. The debt limit will also be taken up today in the House, and we expect no problems providing at least 50 Republicans go along with the measure.
4. Central American Aid Request : The Congress may not be able to take up the emergency supplemental this week, though it was mentioned that time may now be on our side. Duarte's visit has been very well received on the Hill, and has been helpful with regard to the upcoming vote. Secretary Shultz will brief House members today on the covert aid request, and we are hopeful of positive action on the part of the Senate Intelligence Committee. Legislative Affairs has been in touch with all Democrats who have supported covert aid in the past. In addition, a Legislative Strategy Meeting will be held today to discuss our options on language.	Oglesby McFarlane Darman
5. Title IX : The omnibus legislation is expected to be voted out of committee today in the House.	Oglesby
6. Pension Equity for Women : This legislation passed the House yesterday on a unanimous vote. It is expected to reach the White House soon, therefore, we may want to begin considering a possible signing ceremony.	Oglesby
7. Comparable Worth : A merit pay bill is being considered on the Hill which contains language requiring a study of comparable worth pay structures. Also, today's Post reported on an internal OPM memo suggesting a political method for handling this subject. OMB and OPD will continue to monitor the comparable worth issue.	Wright Svahn

The Senate Intelligence Committee yesterday approved covert aid. However, the House barred the President from unilaterally sending US combat troops to El Salvador.

SENIOR STAFF MEETING ACTION ITEMS

ITEM	ACTION
1. Today's Schedule : The CIA groundbreaking event will be covered by the press.	Speakes
2. Cabinet Meeting : A meeting will be held at 2:00 today regarding follow-up to the Grace Commission recommendations.	Fuller
3. Legislative Calendar : The House will take up the debt limit this morning, and will then forward the matter to the Senate; it is hoped that this issue can be resolved today. The Senate will vote on J. Harvie Wilkinson's nomination at noon today, and we expect an attempt to recommit for more hearings.	Oglesby
4. Central American Aid Request : Today, the House will take up the emergency supplemental for Central America. Rep. Long will move to concur on the money for El Salvador, and Boland will move to zero out funds for the Nicaraguan rebels. The matter will then go back to the Senate, though it will probably not be taken up this week.	Oglesby
5. Defense Authorization Bill : We prevailed in votes on the B-1 and the Pershing II missile, though we lost on anti-satellite weapons. Rep. Foley passed an amendment barring introduction of combat troops to El Salvador without Congressional approval. Also, we expect another vote today on the MX missile, and have indications that the Speaker may have reversed a number of Democrats on the issue.	Oglesby
6. Superfund : This legislation has been reported out of subcommittee, and will probably come up during the period between the political conventions.	Oglesby
7. Title IX : HR 5490 was reported out of both the House Judiciary and Energy and Labor Committees yesterday.	Oglesby Svahn
8. Bankruptcy : The Senate has been unable to bring this legislation to a vote. The main reason is disagreement on a union-backed amendment by Packwood which would reverse the Supreme Court's Bildisco decision.	Oglesby Fielding
9. Persian Gulf : A news story today states that the U.S. is exploring the possibility of selling Stinger anti-aircraft missiles to Saudi Arabia. The issue will be discussed in the White House today. It is important to make a decision quickly to allow time for the necessary advance consultations with the Hill.	McFarlane Oglesby

2. Legislative Calendar : The House and Senate are scheduled to be out until the middle of next week.
3. Debt Limit : An extension till June 22 has been passed, and will be signed when it is received from the Hill.	Oglesby Darman

5. Persian Gulf : Iraq is claiming hits on six ships during an attack last night. However, this report is unconfirmed.	McFarlane
The President will probably make a decision this morning on whether to provide the Saudis with an emergency shipment of 200 Stingers, an action which has drawn little opposition during Hill consultations. However, we can expect significant opposition to a possible follow-on shipment of 1,000 Stingers. Jewish groups are especially negative.	McFarlane Oglesby
