3. International Conference on Population: It was mentioned that an agreement has been reached on the policy statement for this conference which largely preserves the original draft paper. Peter McPherson will conduct a background briefing on the subject this afternoon.	Svahn McFarlane

SENIOR STAFF MEETING -- Wednesday, July 25, 1984

A. Senior Staff Agenda

1. Review President's schedule (attached).
-- Trip to Austin, Atlanta, and Newark
2. News conference-- reaction. Do any answers require follow-up?
3. Central American aid-- there is a news report that the WH has given up on passage of the $21 M in covert aid to Nicaragua. Guidance.
4. Defense Authorization Bill-- Sen. Tower has apparently offered a compromise that is less than we had wanted. What is our strategy?
5. Immigration-- there are rumors that the Senate may accept the House version of this bill in order to avoid a conference (and the risk of getting no bill). Do we have any word on this?
6. Senior staff meetings-- there will not be a meeting tomorrow, though there will be one on Friday. The next staff meeting after that will be held on August 16.

B. Items with the President

1. Memo re Human Events article on use of federal funds for lobbying (attached).
