PART 1 Rap Sheet

Here's what we know: Clyde Barrow has been recently paroled from Eastham Prison Farm, located between Dallas, Texas and Houston, Texas. He's with his partner, Bonnie Parker. We're betting they'll be putting some type of group together.

We've already narrowed our list down to Barrow's brother, Marvin "Buck" Barrow, and his wife, Blanche Barrow. But we need your help to figure out two other possible members of this new gang.

Some locals have seen Bonnie and Clyde hanging around with two unidentified people. From what we've gathered, here's what we can give you to help aid your search:

- Person 1 appears to have dark colored hair. They're average height, anywhere from 5'5" to 5'7". They appear young, maybe late teens or early twenties.
- Person 2 was shorter than Person 1, but looked to be a few years older. One person told us that Barrow 'talked to them like they were old buddies, and mentioned Clyde's sister.'

Look at the attached list of possible persons. Who do you think might be the new members of the Barrow Gang?

PART 1 Possible Accomplices

W.D. JONES

- born 1916 (currently around 16)
- dark brown hair, light eyes, 5'6"
- known for stealing license plates
- also known as 'Jack Sherman'
- last known location: Texas

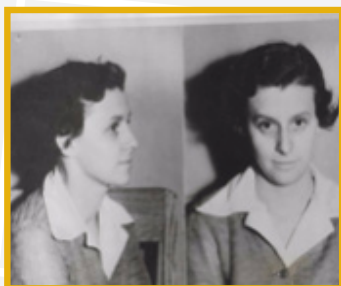

CHARLES ORMSTON

- born 1906 (currently around 26)
- light brown hair, blue eyes, 5'4"
- known for being a loner growing up
- last known location: Oklahoma

RAYMOND HAMILTON

- born 1914 (currently around 18)
- light brown hair, dark eyes, 5'3"
- grew up near the Barrow's neighborhood
- last known location: Texas

HELEN GILLIS

- born 1908 (currently around 24)
- dark hair, dark eyes, 5'3"
- may have hung around with Barrow's sister and Bonnie Parker
- last known location: Oklahoma

JOHN GALLAGER

- born 1901 (currently around 31)
- dark hair, hazel eyes, 5'7"
- missing left eye
- known for breaking into houses
- last known location: Texas

PART 2

Location

The FBI has intercepted a note heading to Bonnie's mother with a clue as to the Barrow Gang's next hiding spot. The FBI has narrowed down the possible location to these five potential states. Based on the clues, where do you think the Barrow Gang hideout is located?

Ma

The lone star isn't safe.

Chasing the "the big muddy" to a safe place to hide. We have been seeing lots of abandoned farms of the midwest and people affected by the recession leaving the state. Maybe we will head west where the weather is warmer.

Clyde thinks the car may not make it so we will have to find some options quick.

If you must reach us we are somewhere isolated in the northern cob. Look to the eye of the hawk.

PART 2 Possible Locations

IOWA

- Iowa borders the Mississippi and Colorado Rivers.
- Its landscape is mainly rolling plains and cornfields.
- Home of Dexter Field amusement park, once the largest theme park in Iowa but since abandoned by the recession.

MICHIGAN

- Known as the Wolverine state.
- Home of the Ford Motor Company (an excellent place to get a new getaway vehicle).
- Close border to Canada, a perfect getaway location.

KANSAS

- Home of the Tallgrass Prairie.
- Has earned the nickname of "Tornado Alley" due to how many tornadoes the state gets.
- Sunflower Army Ammunition site, the largest production site of bullets by the U.S government (a great place to restock on ammunition).

NEW MEXICO

- Known for its White Sand Desert.
- Nicknamed the Land of Enchantment.
- The state is known for multiple caves and caravans hidden throughout the Guadalupe Mountains.

OHIO

- Known by many as the "Mother of Presidents."
- Borders Lake Erie.
- Throughout the river valley are many Buckeye Trees, giving the state it's nickname.

PART 1

Testimonies

We've had four witnesses come forward with possible information as to where the Barrow gang is staying. Look at each of their statements carefully, and decide which lead we should follow.

Witness 1

A traveling salesman heading out of the state. When we talked to him, this is what he told us:

“I was on a back road outside of Des Moines trying to get a ride, or maybe a customer, when this couple drove by. The woman was real pretty, I remember that, but the older man with her didn't say a word to me, even when I tried showing them some of my stock. He mentioned something about having to get back to the rest of the family and drove off. Nearly ran over my foot when he did so.”

Witness 2

A man who was picking wild blackberries on his property. He brought in some items with him, and told us this:

“I was out grabbing some berries for my kids when I found this map - not sure what exactly it's showing, the blood on it is covering most of the page. A few feet away I came across this bloody shirt and some bandages, and when I went to investigate I caught sight of a group of people hurrying down the road. Looked like they were heading over to Dexfield Park - not sure why though, that place has been abandoned for years.”

PART 1 Testimonies

We've had four witnesses come forward with possible information as to where the Barrow gang is staying. Look at each of their statements carefully, and decide which lead we should follow.

Witness 3

A farmer. He owns a cornfield outside of the city and ran people off the property. When he saw the Wanted signs, he called in.

“There was a group of people pulling some of my plants and grabbing corn from my stock. I fired a gun in the air as a warning and they took off. They looked like teenagers, I always have kids running in and out of my fields, but two of them could have been those people you’re looking for.”

Witness 2

A man and his family, traveling west. Here's what they said:

“We’re heading out west so I can try and find a job, and were driving through Des Moines when a car nearly drove us off the road. There were probably four or five people in the car, most of them girls, all hollering at each other. One of them kinda looked like that woman on your posters, but I’m not sure.”

PART 2

Questioning

Blanche Barrow

After the shootout, the FBI has managed to capture two members of the Barrow Gang. Buck is in critical condition and can't talk, but Blanche is being held at a local precinct, awaiting questioning. You and your partner have just been informed that bureau director J. Edgar Hoover is coming to handle the interrogation of Blanche personally, but his train has been delayed. Hoover doesn't like to waste time, and he wants you to begin questioning Blanche until he arrives.

A warning: she doesn't seem to be cooperating with officers. Be careful in your investigation techniques, and choose the best options to try and get the information out of her. Choose three of the following questions to ask Blanche. We're pressed for time, so make sure you pick whichever ones you believe will give us the best information:

"Where are your accomplices hiding?"

"What does the Barrow gang plan to rob next?"

"Are there any other members of the Barrow gang that we don't know about?"

"Do you have a way to contact the Barrow gang?"

"Are you interested in testifying against your accomplices in exchange for immunity?"

"Are there any robberies we don't know about?"

Blanche has refused to answer any of your questions.

Hoover has arrived and pulled you from the investigation room. Blanche was not forthcoming with any valuable information, and Director Hoover is disappointed with you and your partner. If you don't handle your next mission correctly, you'll be out of the field and back on desk work for the rest of your career.

Crime Scene

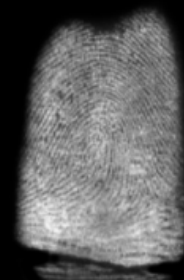

ATTENTION ALL AGENTS! We have just received word that a murder has taken place in Oklahoma. A Sheriff and his Deputy were shot; the Sheriff didn't make it and the Deputy was badly wounded. Our intel received matches the description of Bonnie and Clyde, but we need hard evidence to convict them. Our agents have partial fingerprints that were found at the scene of a crime. Analyze the fingerprints to see if any match our records on Clyde Barrow.

Code Breaker

It all comes down to this, Agents. Ivan Methvin, the father of Barrow gang member Henry Methvin, has turned in some letters he was able to intercept from the Barrow Gang. He's hoping that by doing so, his son can get a lesser punishment once they're all caught. Let's see what information we can get from the letters first.

It looks like they're all in some type of code. We've figured out that they all point to the state of Louisiana, but we can't pinpoint a town. Figure out the hints below, and hurry - you only have five minutes. If we don't intercept them before they escape, who knows the next time we'll find Bonnie and Clyde.

To answer these questions, you might need to do some research on the internet. Good luck!"

BONNIE AND CLYDE

If the team earns enough points to win

Congratulations Agents

you apprehended Bonnie and Clyde and brought them to justice. Director Hoover is quite pleased with your work and has big plans for your future in the Bureau. Great work!

BONNIE AND CLYDE

If the players don't earn enough points and lose

Still on the Loose

Bonnie and Clyde have slipped through your fingers for the last time. Your team has been pulled off of the case. Director Hoover put more qualified agents on the case, and they were the ones to capture Bonnie and Clyde.
