MEMORANDUM FOR ELIZABETH H. DOLE

FROM:

BOB BONITATI B

SUBJECT:

Hotel Restaurant Workers Speech

Charlotte Ellis tells me that you will be making a decision soon on whether or not to accept the invitation of Bob Juliano to attend the January meeting of the Hotel Restaurant Employees meeting in Palm Springs.

I would like to encourage you to do so. Your participation will serve to illustrate that some unions are interested in "developing a dialogue" and your speech can be used to convey a message to organized labor. This should also be a good opportunity to reflect any new labor strategy that we adopt.

MEMORANDUM FOR ELIZABETH H. DOLE

THRU: RED CAVANEY
FROM: BOB BONITATI B
SUBJECT: Hotel & Restaurant Employees Board Meeting

As a follow up to our conversation this morning, I want to reiterate Bob Juliano's great interest in having both you and Senator Dole attend the Board meeting of the Hotel & Restaurant Employees Union in Palm Springs, California during the week of January 17, 1982. The meeting will begin on Monday, January 17 and continue throughout the week.

Bob indicated that both of you would eventually be receiving letters of invitation.

Dear Bob:

I've talked with Elizabeth about she and Senator Dole attending your Board meeting in Palm Springs in January, and she is enthusiastic about the prospect.

I'd suggest that you get some form of invitation to both of them so that they can get those dates on their calendars.

Keep in touch.

Very sincerely,

Robert F. Bonitati
Special Assistant to the President
