NATIONAL SECURITY DECISION
DIRECTIVE NUMBER 297

PREPARATIONS FOR THE 1988 ECONOMIC SUMMIT (U)

This directive clarifies the responsibilities of various agencies in preparing for the 1988 Economic Summit meeting in Toronto. (U)

I. Preparations with Other Governments - "Sherpa" Team

I redesignate Allen Wallis, Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, as my Personal Representative for the preparation of policy aspects of the Summit meeting. Together with Stephen Danzansky, Senior Director of the National Security Council's International Economic Affairs staff, and David Mulford, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for International Affairs, he will represent the U.S. Government at preparatory meetings for the Summit. (U)

II. Preparations within the U.S. Government

The President's Personal Representative will coordinate interagency preparation for the Economic Summit through appropriate groups at the Under Secretary level from the Vice President's office, the Departments of State, Treasury, Commerce, Defense, Agriculture, Energy, the Central Intelligence Agency, the United States Trade Representative, the National Security Council (NSC) staff, and the Council of Economic Advisors. He will coordinate the preparation of necessary briefing materials and U.S. participation in other international meetings where Summit issues are discussed. (U)

In carrying out his responsibilities for the Summit, the President's Personal Representative will report to the White House Summit Group (WHSG), co-chaired by the Chief of Staff to the President and the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs. The WHSG will have primary responsibility for all matters relating to the Summit and will provide me with recommendations for decision. It may call upon the NSC and the Economic Policy Council for recommendations as necessary. (C)

The Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of State, who will be members of the WHSG, will have lead responsibility within the WHSG for coordinating economic issues and political issues respectively. The NSC's Senior Director of International Economic Affairs will be executive secretary of the WHSG. (U)

COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS

SUBJECT: Toronto Summit Policy Paper Assignments

At our meeting yesterday we discussed drafting assignments for a series of policy papers to help develop U.S. approaches to issues that are likely to come up at the Toronto Summit.

Let me summarize what I believe you agreed to have CEA undertake in the way of papers:

Structural Adjustment (with State)
Security Market Regulation (with Treasury)
Economic Implications of Social Programs (with State)
Education

As we discussed, the scope of the the papers should not be limited to the few points suggested in the listing we distributed at the meeting; drafters should have free rein to bring in those issues and considerations they view as relevant. I also should clarify that these papers will be "think pieces" for our own use in preparing for the Summit. They are not to be Summit briefing book papers.

I want to reiterate my request that first drafts of these papers be circulated no later than Thursday April 7, two weeks from yesterday. I am sending similar memoranda to the other participants in yesterday's meeting who took on drafting responsibilities. Attached to each is an identical summary of drafting responsibilities. Let me know if this proposal is acceptable to you.
