SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

TO: MICHAEL K. DEEVER
DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: RICHARD V. ALLEN rw

REQUEST: Meeting with European Communities
Commission President Gaston Thorn

PURPOSE: Thorn and his predecessors have acquired recognition virtually on a par with heads of government at the economic summit. He will be here in preparation for the Ottawa Summit. A refusal by the President for a courtesy call might well be taken as a slight to the EC. We will need Thorn's help in many U.S.-EC controversies.

BACKGROUND: Thorn will only be in Washington for one day.
He is pro-American and can be very helpful in managing U.S.-European economic problems.
The Vice President will have a long substantive meeting with Thorn on our approach to Ottawa Summit issues.

PREVIOUS PARTICIPATION: His predecessors have regularly called on the President when in Washington.

DATE: July 9 DURATION: 10 minutes

LOCATION: The Oval Office

PARTICIPANTS: Gaston Thorn
Secretary Alexander M. Haig, Jr.
Richard V. Allen

OUTLINE OF EVENTS: Secretary Haig will introduce Gaston Thorn to the President and there will be a brief exchange of remarks.

REMARKS REQUIRED: Brief remarks to be provided by NSC.

MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD V. ALLEN

FROM: RUTHERFORD POATS RP

SUBJECT: Request for Appointment with the President for Gaston Thorn, President of the EC Commission

The State Department strongly advises (Tab II) agreement by the President to a short meeting with Gaston Thorn on July 9. Thorn and his predecessors have acquired recognition virtually on a par with heads of government at the economic summits. He will be here in preparation for the Ottawa Summit. In this light a refusal by the President of a get-acquainted courtesy call might well be taken as a slight to the EC. As State's note points out, we will need Thorn's help in many US-EC controversies. Rentschler concurs.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: GREG NEWELL NR

FROM: RICHARD V. ALLEN

SUBJECT: Request for Appointment with Gaston Thorn,
President of the European Communities
Commission

The Department of State recommends, and I concur, that a brief courtesy call on you by Gaston Thorn, President of the European Communities Commission, be scheduled during Thorn's one-day visit to Washington, July 9. He will be here in preparation for the Ottawa Summit, where he will receive equal treatment with the seven heads of government. His predecessors have regularly called on the President when in Washington. We need his help frequently in resolving US-EC disputes on trade and other economic matters.

The Vice President will have a long substantive meeting with Thorn on our approach to Ottawa Summit issues. You need devote no more than ten minutes to a get-acquainted visit, including a photo opportunity.

That you agree to receive Gaston Thorn for a courtesy call on July 9.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USEMEMORANDUM FOR MR. RICHARD V. ALLEN
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: EC Commission President Thorn Visit, July 9, 1981

We understand that the Vice President has agreed to receive Gaston Thorn, EC Commission President, for a one-day working visit on July 9. Thorn also wishes to pay a brief call on the President that day. The Department supports Thorn's request, even if the meeting with the President is no more than a photo opportunity. EC Commission presidents have traditionally been received by the President. Thorn has expressed the wish to visit Washington primarily to consult on Ottawa Summit preparations. Thorn, who is pro-American, can be very helpful in managing US-European economic problems. Therefore, the Department strongly recommends approval of both a short courtesy call on the President as well as a longer substantive meeting with the Vice President.

WASHINGTON

August 4, 1981

Dear Mr. President:

It was a great pleasure to see you again at Montebello. The Ottawa Summit reflected the enormous value of the cooperative framework within which we are committed to deal with the challenges we face.

Our earlier discussions in Washington were highly useful in preparing for the Summit. We intend to continue to work closely with you on maintaining the excellent relationship between the European Community and the United States.

I know that your participation at Montebello was clouded by the tragic death of your close associate, Fernand Spaak. He had done so much to further EC-US ties and will be missed by friends and admirers on both sides of the Atlantic. Please accept my condolences on this sad event.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

His Excellency
Gaston Thorn
President of the Commission of the European Communities
