MEDIA RELATIONS

Dear Mr. President

It was a source of huge pleasure to my family and me to receive your wonderful message of greeting and support that Bob Gray brought with him from Washington. That you should take the trouble to write to me on my birthday was a gesture that I appreciated most deeply and which I will never forget.

The relations that I have had in my many dealings with The White House and with Cabinet Departments and Federal Agencies, as well as with my many friends and business colleagues in America generally, have been a source of great support to me and my colleagues.

Elisabeth and I send our warmest greetings to you and The First Lady.

Robert

Dear Mr. Maxwell:

As the "Happy Birthdays" ring out, Nancy and I are delighted to join in the chorus of admiration. We want to be sure to include our good wishes among those most deservedly coming to you on the occasion of your 65th birthday.

May God bless and keep you for many more.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN<sup>A</sup>

Dear Mrs. Maxwell:

Thank you for your message inviting the Chief of Staff to to a dinner and dance celebrating the 40th anniversary of Pergamon Press on June 10.

Your invitation is appreciated, but the heavy demands of Mr. Baker's schedule make it impossible for him to accept. However, he asked me to thank you for your kindness and send you his best wishes.

Sincerely,

Lura Nell Mitchell
