Re: Important Step

1. When the Hungarians ~~in~~ were invaded^{in 56}, when Red China exploded its bomb^{in 68}, both Stevenson and Nixon bought air time to discuss these events,
 2. We should start planning now -- in case of Soviet armor in Poland -- for a nationwide broadcast.
 3. We must not preempt the president on this.....however, it is will be a tremendous chance for us to bring up "the crisis pattern" ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ that is endemic to the Carter administration's handling of foreign affairs.
 4. ~~XXXXXXXX~~ This could be thw way to turn around any negative ~~thx~~ perceptions of Governor Reagan on war issue -- coming ^{lit} at from the leadership side -- Gov Reagan could show how a careful, well-planned foreign policy can avoid the crisis mentality ^{and} brinkmanship like that of Carters' last January when he was forced to make belicose threats.
 5. ABOVE ALL, IT IS THE PERFECT PYSCHOLOGICAL MOMENT FOR US TO HIT THE ISSUE OF "INORDINATE FEAR OF COMMUNISM" AND THE DISASTERS THIS POLICY HAS CAUSED AROUND THE WORLD,
 6. We can't blame Poland directly on Carter policies but we can show the American people that Carter has a wholly unrea~~is~~stic view of the Soviet Empire.
- The average American sense this -- but if we remind him of inordinate fear of communism he will understand that the Carter administration's perception of the world is totally bankrupt.
