Dear Vice President Bush

Greetings from the Golden State. It has been some time since your fund raising visits here on behalf of Pete Mc Closky and Milton Marks. We enjoyed playing music with my string quartet on those occasions, both at the Shaklee Corporate office.

I have read with great interest of the pending visit in March of 1983 of Queen Elizabeth. As I understand she will be having dinner with President Regan at our De Young Museum. It occurred to me that a most fitting form of musical accompaniment would be my string quartet. We would delight the Queen with the music of Benjamin Britten and Henry Purcell, as well as many of the other European composers. As I understand, she will be arriving by boat so that there may be other occasions where our music could be incorporated.

If you might pass along my inquiry to the appropriate persons, I would be most grateful.

Cordially,

Peter Rudolfi

Dear Mr. Rudolphi:

Thank you very much for your letter of November 20th. I really did enjoy your group's performance at the special luncheon in the Mayor's office this past week. It was a nice luncheon, and your group certainly complemented a very pleasant occasion for me.

It is quite possible that we could use your services in Shaklee-related functions and, therefore, I am sending a copy of your letter to our Vice President, Corporate Communications, Claude Jarman, and our Group Manager, Travel Planning, Bill Lazzaretti.

Thanks, again, for your thoughtful letter.

Sincerely,

Dear Peter:

Thank you, Peter, for a very fine performance at our Embarcadero Center event celebrating the opening of the Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall. Your quartet truly set the Center to music and created just the right atmosphere for our program.

It is not surprising the San Francisco Symphony recommended the Rudolphi Quartet for the job.

SUBJECT: ENCLOSED LETTER FROM THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR

I thought you would like to have a copy of the enclosed correspondence which arrived in my office yesterday for your files.

TELEPHONE:(202) 462-1340

FROM THE AMBASSADOR

3 January 1983

The Honorable
Mabel H Brandon
Social Secretary to the White House
Washington DC

Dear Muffie,

Following our talk last month I promised to let you have names of people who might be invited to the President's dinner for the Queen in San Francisco.

In the categories you suggested, we have not yet completed our lists of Rhodes and Marshall scholars nor of Captains of Industries. I hope to let you have these next week.

In the meantime, I enclose a list of US citizens who shared Nobel Prizes with British Citizens of whom one Professor Berg, is at Stanford. I also enclose a list of Americans holding Honorary Knighthoods together with a note of the position they occupy, where this is not obvious.

Our Consuls-General will be letting me have next week their suggestions for guests to the dinners and receptions the Queen will be giving in San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco. We have agreed with Mike Deaver and Bill Sittmann that we will show them these lists so that we can avoid duplication and so that you can let us know of any additional names who might need to be included. This applies particularly to the Queen's dinner in honour of the President and Mrs Reagan in San Francisco on 4 March. But we would welcome your guidance at other points as well.

With all good wishes for 1983

Yours sincerely

Oliver Wright

Dear Ms. Tate:

I am a sixteen year old high school student. I think that I am a good representation of the best qualities of America's teenagers. I attend San Marcos High School. Along with being on the honor roll at school, I work part time at a local fast food chain, participate in church activities, and have many hobbies, one of which is playing the flute.

I would like very much to present Queen Elizabeth II with a bouquet of flowers upon her arrival in Santa Barbara, or at a more appropriate time during her visit.

Being a part of this historic event would be very exciting for me because of my love of my country and my admiration of our British heritage.

If you are not the person to handle this request, could you please forward it to the proper office.

Sincerely yours,

Julie Ohman
