BRITISH ROYAL VISIT : MEDIA

Hotel Requirements:

1. I enclose details of the hotel rooms British press officials will require on the West Coast for this visit. Michael Shea will not need a room in every port but in some of the main centres (eg San Francisco and Santa Barbara). I would like to take a suite which Michael Shea could use for briefing purposes if required. In San Diego, Michael should have a suite on 24/25 February before Britannia arrives and the visit starts.
2. We are working on a list of hotel requirements for the British media and will let you have this as soon as possible.

Official Photographers:

3. During the last advance visit we discussed the points in the programme when Mary Anne Fackelman or another official photographer might have access where the media was not present.
4. As I explained, The Queen and Duke of Edinburgh have no requirements for protective coverage and prefer the occasions on which photographers have access to be limited. I have discussed all these with Michael Shea and enclose at Annex B a list of the events at which The Queen would be content for Mary Anne or another official photographer to be present.
5. With these exceptions, we should should consider all other events at which the media are not present to be off-limits for official photography as well.
6. I hope the access we have agreed for Mary Anne will meet your requirements.
