Dear Mr. Bonney:

Thank you for your letter inviting the President to be the Sire for the Bohemian Club's Symphony Orchestra's Concert at the 1989 Spring Jinks on June 3, 1989 in San Francisco.

Your thoughtfulness in extending this opportunity to him is indeed appreciated.

Unfortunately, at this time, we have not begun to develop the President's schedule for the period after the end of his Administration. Please be assured, however, that we will keep your request on file and contact you later on with a more definite response.

Sincerely,

Personal

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Reagan:

Along with all your fellow Bohemians, the members of the Club's Symphony Orchestra, and Tunerville Camp, hope that your newly-found leisure in 1989 will allow you to honor the Club again with your participation.

As Chairman of the Orchestra's Executive Committee, I am unanimously and enthusiastically authorized to invite you to be the Sire for the Orchestra's concert at the 1989 Spring Jinks, to be performed on Saturday, June 3 at the Grove. We would be happy to assist in the preparation of suitable material for your use.

The concert will have the theme "Americana," and probably will include works by Ives, Copland, and Bernstein.

We all feel that this would be a splendid way for us to renew the good fellowship with you which is so much a hallmark of the Club and which we have missed while you have been committed to serving the nation.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With best regards,

Respectfully

Dennis Bonney
