MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: RICHARD V. ALLEN Lick

SUBJECT: Brezhnev's Health

some interesting 25X1
comments on Brezhnev's health:

- o It is apparent that Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev's health problems affect his ability to play a meaningful leadership role. Brezhnev is being propped up politically as well as physically by a group that is attempting to carry out Brezhnev's policies and this group seems lacking in military representation.
- o On more than one occasion Brezhnev had to be escorted from a meeting because of his incoherence or inability to sustain a dialogue. He occasionally had to be helped in his chair when he leaned forward and could not return to an upright position.
- o There were times when Brezhnev's interpreter responded comments without waiting for Brezhnev's reply found very disconcerting. The Soviets offered no explanation or apology other to warn that Brezhnev could not stand long negotiating sessions. (S)

The Honorable William E. Brock
 United States Trade Representative
 Executive Office of the President 600 17th Street, N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20506

Dear Ambassador Brock:

In a few days you will discuss the sale of American grain to the Soviet Union with representatives of the U.S.S.R. It is our belief that this is an opportunity to discuss three matters of utmost concern to those of us involved in the human rights struggle:

the persecution of religious groups in Russia who gather to pray;

the refusal by the Soviet government to permit the teaching of the Hebrew language;

the refusal to permit emigration from the U.S.S.R.

Since the grain embargo against the Soviet Union was lifted, new arrests and trials of people who expressed their religious or cultural beliefs have taken place. Christian and Jewish groups who gather to pray or learn their culture are still persecuted. The numbers of those permitted to leave the U.S.S.R. are the lowest of recent years.

We urge you to discuss these troubling matters with Soviet representatives in Vienna. Indeed, man does not live by bread alone. If we are to provide grain to the Russian people, we should try to provide them with the freedom to pursue spiritual nourishment as well. Any eventual agreement reached should contain clauses stating the Soviet Union will not restrict prayer gatherings, the teaching of Hebrew culture and language, or emigration from the Soviet Union.

Sincerely,
