Dear Mr. Agam:

Your recent letter to Nancy Reynolds has been forwarded to my office.

The art works which you presented to the President and Mrs. Reagan during their stay at Blair House, have been placed in the residence. The Reagans are very pleased with your art works, and your graciousness is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your thoughtfulness.

Dear Mrs. Reynolds,

It was a pleasure to meet you at the Blaire House, after my meeting with Nancy and Ronald Reagan, few days before crossing the street.

At that time, I promised to send you as a souvenir first day cover of my stamp, which I am happy to enclose herewith.

Under a separate cover, I am sending you the catalogue of my last Exhibition at the Guggenheim Museum in New York.

I would be very pleased to know if the President and Mrs. Reagan enjoy my art works, and where they were placed. Of course, I will be glad to be of any assistance as to their best presentation, and for any further art works of mine they would like to have.

As to the small "Beating Heart" of 18 pieces belonging to Mrs. Reagan, I suggested to make her familiar with all the many possibilities of this art work for her better enjoyment. I will be most delighted to do so if Mrs. Reagan so desires.

On my next coming trip to the United States, beginning of May, I might be accompanied by my wife who was so sorry she could not come with me to meet Mr. and Mrs. Reagan; I told her you told me that on our next trip you may arrange so that she could be received by Mrs. Reagan.

My compliments and my best wishes for success in the very important mission of yours, which is so important to all of us.

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Reagan,

Last August I entered a watercolor painting entitled, "A Political Complexion", in the R.M. National Watermedia Exhibition held at the Foothills Art Center, in Golden, Colorado.

I am enclosing a calendar that contains a picture of the award winning painting. It would be an honor for me if you would accept this small token of my appreciation.

I have applied for and have been accepted by the American Watercolor Society to show the painting, "A Political Complexion" at their 114th Annual Exhibition in New York City from April 1 through April 26, 1981. The exhibition is scheduled at 3 E. 89th in New York City.

At present I am attending Peninsula Junior College in Port Angeles, Washington. I will be seeking enrollment in the College of Fine Arts at the University of Washington next fall and am looking forward to continued growth in the area of fine arts.

Respectfully yours,

Steve J. Norton
