KIWI CONSULTANT

1/20/80

Dear Mr. President & Mrs. Reagan,

As I watched the Inaugural gala performance on TV last nite, it finally sunk in, that our California Governor was the President of the United States! God bless you both and give you the strength to carry on, knowing that millions of us pray for your success.

I am proud to be an American in this wonderful country of ours. Proud also to be an independent farmer, even though of only one acre of kiwifruit. Thirteen years ago I was one of a handful of pioneer growers to start the kiwifruit industry in California. It has been a wonderful challenge and very interesting. I hope you will accept and enjoy this kiwifruit gift box from my farm along with the kiwifruit Recipe book which I had the pleasure to help originate.

The Inauguration Day Ceremonies today were so impressive and inspirational, that my husband Ron and I feel that this memorable day in history should be a national holiday for all to enjoy - as well for our children and our children's children.

Sincerely,

Barbara LaViolette Spink

P.S. As a note of reference -

Mr. Ralph Woodworth, manager of The Bel Air Sands Hotel wrote to us and sent news clippings of the association with your Secret Service men because we had met with him last year regarding serving kiwifruit in his hotel - which he does.

Also - Do you know how Henry Fonda's kiwi plants from me are doing?
