Dear Girls and Boys:

You were good to think of me and I want you to know how pleased I am by your kindness. Thank you for remembering me with the four bags of Brach's jelly beans and those wonderful birthday cards made by each of you.

Nancy joins me in sending you our best wishes.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Gift - jelly beans with birthday card

Feb. 4, 1988

Dear Mr. President,

My second grade class is very excited to wish you a happy birthday.

Enclosed are their personal wishes to you, along with a little gift they brought money to purchase. They feel anyone whose favorite candy is jelly beans, is surely a friend to children.

We include in our silent morning prayers, a prayer for you that God will lead and direct you, give you good health and protect you. One of them commented that "God would make a good cabinet member." "Out of the mouths of babes..."

Happy Birthday.

Respectfully,
June Huntzinger
