VAN CLIBURN

Born in Shreveport, Louisiana, and taught the piano by his mother at age three, Van Cliburn played his first public performance at age four. He made his orchestral debut with the Houston Symphony at age twelve and his Carnegie Hall debut as winner of the National Music Festival Award the following year. A graduate of The Juilliard School, Van Cliburn won the Edgar M. Leventritt Foundation Award in 1954; he was the first recipient of the award since 1949. Van Cliburn's performances in Moscow are well known. At the first Tchaikovsky Competition in 1958, he won the hearts of the Soviet people and the praise of critics around the world. Van Cliburn went on to play several more concerts in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, each one to sold-out houses and tremendous acclaim. He was welcomed back to the United States with a ticker tape parade and rave reviews following his first concert back home. After going on sabbatical in 1978, Van Cliburn moved to Fort Worth, Texas, where he takes an active role in the international competition named in his honor.
