January 28, 1981

President Ronald Reagan
White House
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

The wife and I are Very Happy You Are our President. We are sending You a small token in the form of a Game - Honoring Your Name.

© "THE NAME IS THE NAME OF THE Game"

The Original name of the Game was American Fork, and was designed and used in connection with a business enterprise. We decided we would like to send You your own Personalized Ronald Reagan Fun Game.

Enclosed are the original playing instructions to the American Fork fun game. To play the game Ronald Reagan just simply follow the game instructions outlined for the American Fork game and substitute the initials R. R.
in place of A. F. at top of score pad.

We know Mr. President your goal for this Presidential Administration is to turn America around to a new beginning. Now a Challenging note in regards to your Personalized Game. By adding a new playing rule to this original simple game - it can become more complicated,

Unique and Challenging. Symbolically like unto your Presidential Administration momentous task, although the task is very, very difficult to accomplish, it is possible to do. Now the Ronald Reagan Game Challenge.

If you can drop or roll those blocks so you can arrange the letters appearing on top of blocks [using no blanks] to spell out your full name Ronald Reagan, you will be a Grand Champion Winner.

We know God can accomplish miracles through a dedicated man with a steadfast, righteous determination. We hope you will continue to live worthy of what we believe we discern as the beginnings of that attribute.

May the Lord's most choice blessings be with you and your family that you may become Grand Champion Winner in accomplishing your goals. Thumbs up Mr. President in a positive way.

Our Best Regards
Lee and Virginia Bonham
206 W. 400 S.
American Fork, Utah 84003

P.S. We know you will probably be too busy to actually play this game - but on second thought you will be playing Ronald Reagan for the next four years [we hope longer].

Mr. President When tension, stress build, and disappointments flood in upon your mind (as they surely will) to try and discourage you and make you feel like giving up sometimes. We suggest you try as a mental relaxing therapy, rolling or dropping the jiu blocks a few times with the name Ronald Reagan as focus point to help to remind you that you are a man destined to be a Winner.
We are reminded of the saying "A Winner Never Quits, and a Quitter never Wins!"

Perhaps if this little insufficient game can serve you in this way it may earn a worthy place among your Presidential mementos.

President Ronald Reagan
The White House

January 29, 1981

Dear Mr. Reagan,

we and our two children became American citizens in August of 1980, and we were privileged to participate - for the first time in our life - in democratic elections. Without hesitation we voted for you and your political platform. Today I am very happy to say that we are proud again of our choice.

We had to spend most of our life in the cage of totalitarian soviet society, whose only great "achievements" have been hecatombs of victims, world records of impudent lie, the KGB terror and tremendous military machine. We know for sure that the minds and hearts of the Kremlin rulers are full of hatred and rancor for the United States - the only force potentially capable to stop and defeat soviet plans of world domination. We also learned, through hard experiences, that kind words, noble but naive ideas and good-looking agreements cannot succesfully divert soviet plans.

This can be done only by a firm political stand expressed in plain words by strong, dedicated leaders of the United States backed by all economic and military might of the Free World.

We congratulate you on your splendid victory, wise choice of General Alexander Haig as your Secretary of State, and an excellent beginning of what we believe will be the great Presidency and the new era in history of this Republic and all democratic countries.

With most cordial best wishes to you, Dear Sir, and Mrs. Reagan, I remain, respectfully yours

Dear Jim,

Forgot to make sure that you got one of the best souvenirs of the inauguration. I had these badges made at my expense for the Vice President's Reception.

Since there are only 120 of them in existence they have to be of some value. I have provided one for the Vice President and each of the volunteers on the Floor Committee has one. I'd like for you to stash one away and would appreciate it if you would see that the President receives one for his collection. I am also donating one to the Smithsonian for its collection.

Was a good affair. Sorry I missed you and your daughter.

Dear Mr. President:

Media accounts have attested to your fondness for jelly beans, and your use of them when you were Governor of California.

On behalf of the people of Atlantic City, and the salt water taffy industry founded here, I am pleased to enclose a complimentary sample of some of Atlantic City's finest.

We think that salt water taffy would compare most favorably with jelly beans in providing a tasty, healthful snack, and one which, hopefully, will also be of assistance, as apparently your jelly beans are, in clearing the mind and in facilitating the decision making process.

We hope that you will give the East Coast, and salt water taffy, equal time in your administration.

Please accept in addition my personal hopes for a fully successful administration in dealing with the monumental problems facing the people of the United States.

With best wishes, I am

Dear Mr. Skutt:

Gift - Many thanks for the Saint Patrick's Day necktie that you left with Mrs. Fay Steiner at the March 17 meeting of the National Alliance of Business. Your kindness in remembering me in this thoughtful way is particularly appreciated.

Although I missed the pleasure of meeting you, I do want to express my gratitude for your generous remarks about Mrs. Elizabeth Dole and Mrs. Steiner. I am always delighted to have good news about my staff.

It is heartening to know that I have the support of the National Alliance of Business for my plan for economic recovery. I am most grateful for the NAB's willingness to cooperate in this effort.

Dear Mr. President:

Anticipating seeing you at the March 17 Board meeting of the National Alliance of Business -- and realizing your Celtic origin -- I took the liberty of bringing along a St. Patrick's Day necktie for you. Incidentally, your Assistant and Public Liaison, Elizabeth Dole, represented you admirably.

The very efficient Fay Steiner, White House Liaison for the NAB, who actually maintained close liaison during the year and a half that I was National Chairman and the years I have served on the Board, was nice enough to say she would deliver this little gift to you. No acknowledgment is expected.

You have our assurance to help you fulfill your purpose in shifting more of the obligations -- and opportunities -- of the public sector to the private sector as necessary to preserve the strength and progress of our Nation. With every good wish,

Dear Mr. President,

Wishing you a joyous celebration on your birthday Friday!

You are such an inspiration! And you radiate all the high standards and high moral values by which this great land was founded.

And, as First Lady Nancy says in her book, "NANCY", "to never give up", this is my motto in attaining a noble position... like being a part of your perspicacious staff!

Recently Mr. Peter McCoy interviewed me regarding a spot on the press staff thanks to the lovely suggestion by Nancy Clark Reynolds whom I worked with on the dinner for President Echeverria.

Oh yes, back to the point...! I am doubly proud that you are by Commanding Officer, first, as a citizen and second, as a petty officer in the United States Coast Guard Reserve!

God Bless you, Mr. President and Happy Birthday!!!

Dear President Reagan,

We are happy that you are President of the United States. We hope you have a nice time being the President. We want you to have a good four years.

We are so happy that you and President Carter got the hostages out of Iran.

We all liked watching you on T.V., and Mrs. Reagan looked so pretty on T.V. Her dress was so pretty, and her hat too.

When next Christmas comes, we hope you have fun in the White House. We also want you to have a happy Valentine's Day and Easter.

We really love you.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Boewe:

Gift

You were good to think of us and we want you to know how pleased we are by your kindness. Thank you for remembering us with the most unusual silk flowers arranged so attractively in the elegant antique French flower vase. The peonies, daisies and white dove are a perfect complement for the red gladioli.

Nancy joins me in sending you our best wishes.

Mr. President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D. C. 2000

My dear Mr. President:

The excitement that your victory in November and the Presidential Inaugural in January has given us, has inspired us to send you and the First Lady this specially designed bouquet.

This bouquet comes to you in an antique Flow blue vase of French origin, in the spirit of St. Valentine's day, having kept in mind Mrs. Reagan's color preferences and we hope you will both enjoy it.

My husband and I own and operate the above florist business here in Paris, and together with our three children have renovated and refurbished our thirty three room Victorian Home, which was built during the late 1800's. We do live in our home and also have it open to the public, as it is completely furnished with antique furniture throughout and we have floral bouquets of all periods throughout the house.

Our family extends a personal invitation to you and Mrs. Reagan to visit Paris and be our guests in our home.

Mr. Harry Woodyard, our State Representative from our 51st district and Mr. Dan Crane our Congressman and their staffs have been instrumental in assuring us that our arrangement will be received through proper channels.

Our trust in God, in the past, has made our country strong! In biblical history those leaders who made God their God called upon Him for wisdom and guidance and brought their people safely through, and we believe YOU are that caliber of a leader.

Our concern for the future of our government has mounted in the last few years and we urge you to continue your strong stance in areas of budget (welfare in particular) and also defense.

Kindest regards,

John and Judy BOEWE

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. In tendering the shipment described herein for carriage Shipper agrees to these Conditions of Contract, which no agent or employee of the parties may alter, and that this Airbill is non-negotiable and has been prepared by Shipper or on Shipper's behalf by Carrier.
2. It is mutually agreed that the shipment described herein is accepted on the date hereof in apparent good order (except as noted) for carriage as specified herein, subject to governing rates, rules and classifications stated in the most recent official Airline Freight Rate Tariff of Carrier. Said rates, rules and classifications are available for inspection by the parties hereto and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this contract.
3. Shipper must enter the amount of any Shipper's C.G.D. which shall be collected subject to the fee and rules of the delivering carrier.
4. Carrier's routing applies unless shipper inserts specific routing.
5. All shipments are subject to inspection by the Carrier.
6. Delivery will be made by the delivering carrier to the Consignee at a point where delivery service is available at Carrier's applicable charges unless instructions to deliver at city terminal are specified by Shipper under Instructions to Carrier.
7. Shipment is subject to charges for actual or dimensional weight in accordance with Carrier's applicable rules.
8. The Shipper shall comply with all applicable laws and all Customs and other Government regulations of any jurisdiction to, from or through which the shipment may be carried, including those relating to the packing, carriage or delivery of the shipment, and shall furnish such information and attach such documents to this Airbill as may be necessary to comply with such laws and regulations. Carrier shall not be obligated to inquire into the correctness or sufficiency of such information or documents. Carrier shall not be liable to the Shipper for loss or expense due to the Shipper's failure to comply with this provision.
9. By tendering the shipment to Carrier for transportation, the Shipper, for himself and all other parties having an interest in the shipment, agrees to the limitations set forth in Carrier's rules and regulations and affirms the description of the shipment as recited on this Airbill, and the fact that the shipment is not of a nature unsuitable for carriage by air, or hazardous thereto.
10. No liability shall attach to Carrier if Carrier in good faith determines that what it understands to be the applicable law, government regulation, demand, order or requirement provides that it does refuse to carry a shipment.
11. Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage, delay or other result caused by:
 - (a) Acts of God, perils of the air, public enemies, public authorities acting with actual or apparent authority in the premises, authority of law, quarantine, riots, unavailability, in whole or in part, of aircraft fuel, strikes, civil commotions, or hazards or dangers incident to the state of war or nuclear risk.
 - (b) The act or default of the Shipper or Consignee.
 - (c) The nature of the shipment, or any defect, characteristic or inherent vice thereof.
 - (d) Violation by the Shipper or Consignee of any of the rules contained in this contract of carriage, including, but not confined to, improper or insufficient packing, securing, marking, or addressing, and failure to observe any of the rules relating to shipments not acceptable only under certain conditions.
 - (e) Compliance with delivery instructions from the Shipper or Consignee or non-compliance with special instructions from the Shipper or Consignee not authorized by Carrier's rules.
 - (f) Shortage of articles loaded and sealed in containers by the shipper, provided the seal is unbroken at the time of delivery and the container retains its basic integrity.
12. (a) For shipments not having a declared value, the total liability of Carrier shall in no event exceed $9.00 per pound of each piece of the shipment which may have been delayed, lost, damaged, or destroyed (but not less than $50.00 per shipment) or the actual value of such piece, whichever is less, plus the amount of any transportation charges for which Carrier may be liable.
 - (b) For shipments having a declared value, the total liability of Carrier shall in no event exceed the declared value of the shipment/piece or the actual value of the shipment/piece, whichever is less, plus the amount of any transportation charges for which Carrier may be liable.
 - (c) Carrier shall not be liable in any event for any consequential or special damages whether or not Carrier had knowledge that such damages might be incurred.
13. Except as provided in the following paragraph below, receipt by the Consignee of the shipment without written notification of damage on the delivery receipt shall be prima facie evidence that the shipment has been delivered in good condition.
14. (a) All claims, except for overcharges, must be made in writing within a period of nine months and nine days after the date of acceptance of the shipment. Claims for overcharges must be made in writing within two years after the date of acceptance of the shipment.
 - (b) Damage and/or loss discovered by the Consignee after delivery and after a clear receipt has been given to the Carrier must be reported in writing within 15 days after delivery of the shipment, with privilege to Carrier to make inspection of the shipment and container within 15 days after receipt of such notice. If more than 15 days elapse between the date of delivery of the shipment by the Carrier and notice of loss or damage by the Consignee, the Consignee shall show good cause why the loss or damage was not discovered earlier and timely notification given.
 - (c) While awaiting inspection by Carrier, the Consignee must hold the shipping container and its contents in the same condition they were in when damage was discovered insofar as it is possible to do so.
 - (d) No claim, with respect to a shipment, any part of which is received by the Consignee, will be entertained until all transportation charges have been paid.
15. (a) Carrier shall not be liable in any action brought to enforce a claim, except for overcharges, unless Carrier's claim procedures have been complied with by the claimant, and unless such action is brought within two years after the date written notice is given to the claimant that Carrier has disallowed the claim in whole or in part.
 - (b) For recovery of overcharges, action at law shall be begun within two years from delivery or tender of delivery of shipment by Carrier, and not after, except that if claim for overcharge has been presented in writing to Carrier within such two year period, that period shall be extended to include six months from the time notice in writing is given by Carrier to claimant for disallowance of the claim, or any part or parts thereof specified in the notice.
16. The Shipper and Consignee shall be liable, jointly and severally, to pay or indemnify Carrier for all claims, fines, penalties, damages, costs or other sums which may be incurred, suffered or disbursed by Carrier by reason of any violation of any of the rules contained in the most recent Official Airline Freight Rate Tariff of Carrier or any other default of the Shipper or such other parties with respect to a shipment.
17. (a) This contract of carriage shall be binding upon the Shipper and Consignee and the carriers by whom transportation is undertaken between the origin and destination, including destination or re-shipment or return of the shipment, and shall inure also to the benefit of any other person, firm, or corporation performing for the Carrier pick-up, delivery or other ground service in connection with the shipment.
 - (b) This contract of carriage shall apply at all times when the shipment is being handled by or for Carrier, including pickup and delivery and other ground services rendered by or for Carrier in connection with the shipment.
18. CARRIER MAINTAINS CARGO LIABILITY INSURANCE LIMITS IN EXCESS OF $1 MILLION (WITH A DEDUCTIBLE OF $1,000.00 PAYABLE BY CARRIER).
