Dear President and Mrs. Reagan,

Enclosed is a picture that we hope will brighten your day, even for a moment.

On a recent Royal Viking Cruise, for costume night we won first prize for dressing as "Ronnie's Jelly Bellies".

To the tune of Yankee Doodle, we sang:

"We Are Ronnie's Jelly Bellies"

"We Are Here To Serve The Chief"

The costumes were large plastic bags filled with colored balloons and tied with red, white and blue ribbons.

Our prayers are for your success in the tremendous undertaking you have. Thank You.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. David Aylmer

Dear Mr. Beckman:

Thank you so much for your generous gift of Silverado Vodka. I can assure you that I and much of my top staff have thoroughly enjoyed your product. You might be interested to know that we have also put a supply aboard Air Force One for use during those times when it is necessary to travel.

It is a real treat to have California-grown products around the White House and on Air Force One. It helps to eliminate some of our home-sickness for our home state.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ronald Reagan

Dear President Reagen:

We are praying not only for your physical health but for your mental and spiritual health as well.

It seems that in times like these we must struggle for love and truth and non-violence. We must know that we are brothers and sisters and care for each other. We cannot condone assassins - be they single individuals or highly placed leaders. If our leaders would work to disavow nuclear weapons and lead a crusade for justice, disarmament and peace surely there would be a lessening of madness among people.

President Reagen please reconsider the budget cuts - lets have money for food not weapons - especially for weapons that can destroy all life on earth.

3/ We sincerely hope that during your recovery that you will think of others less fortunate - our prayers are with you. Our prayers are with the people.

Your daughter Nancy used to shop in Rainbow Grocery in Malibu, California where I worked - her love and concern for you was evident - I pray we can live in love and peace.

Stay Strong

Talicia Sklarewsky

I am fasting for Lent & have since the Sunday before you were shot - I've had just juice - it helps keep the spirit of forgiveness alive.

Best wishes
