Dear Mr. President,

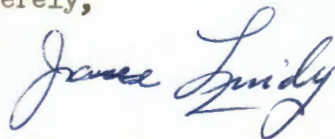

I would like to say I hope you get a "bang" or a "charge" out of this little plant, but I'm afraid your FBI men would think I want to blow you up, so I will just say I hope you think it's cute.

My Sunday School class made about 40 of them to take to the shut-ins from our church for Easter. When I made one and took it to church to see if the class would want to make them, one of the fellows saw the jelly beans and said I should send one to the President. I thought it was a good idea.

Best wishes to you and your First Lady for a Happy Easter. And I pray your term or terms in office may be the greatest yet.

Should you find time to have someone snap your picture behind your desk with your "tulip plant", I'd very much enjoy receiving a copy. (Just to know a President really receives gifts sent to him by an average citizen)

Most sincerely,

PS

I had the above written several weeks ago so that I'd use it. Now I would just like to add I thank God he answered by prayers for you and the others to get well. I pray this terrible thing my never happen again to you or any other President, and we won't be ashamed to say we live in America. Please get well soon. And I hope some day I will be at the right place at the right time and have the honor of meeting you.

Dear Friends:

Thank you very much for the statue of an Arabian horse that Dr. Robert Ewbank sent on your behalf. I am grateful for the support that prompted your handsome gift, and it is a meaningful addition to my collection of Inaugural memorabilia.

I am particularly proud of the Arabian horses at my ranch. It was therefore a real pleasure for me to have this breed in my Inaugural parade. Again, many thanks for your special tribute.

With my warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

Dear Mr. President:

I had the prestigious honor of riding an Arabian horse in your inaugural parade January 20, 1981. It was certainly an exciting event and on behalf of the more than 27,000 members of the International Arabian Horse Association, I want to thank you for allowing the Arabian horse to be part of such a memorable day.

To express our support of you as leader of our great country, I present you the accompanying memento depicting the beautiful Arabian horse. I hope it will bring you fond memories of your first day in office.

Kindest personal regards,

Robert L. Ewbank, D.D.S., M.S.D.

Dear Mr. Peterson:

Thank you for the excellent photograph of the Lincoln Memorial. As you may know, that is my favorite monument and you have captured it in a very special way.

This memorial symbolizes what is great and good in our country. It stands for patriotism, for courage, for strength and for love. I am pleased to learn that we share a respect and understanding for those ideals.

With appreciation and best wishes,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Please accept this small token of my respect for you for what you have done (and I pray will continue to do) to lift the spirits of the people of the United States. I feel this picture says more than meets the eye. It is a memorial upon a memorial. A memorial to an American President who lost his life in the preservation of freedom and the struggle for unity for all American citizens, and a memorial to the spirit of freedom that told the world that we care about our American citizens, and will do whatever is necessary to preserve their freedom.

I remember well the pride I felt as an American in the fifties and sixties, when the world had respect for America. I have seen this pride slowly diminishing for the last 25 years and it was disheartening to watch something that was so beautiful to me dying. I have been looking for a spark that would revive us. I looked into the eyes of my fellow Americans, I listened to the words of our leaders and there was nothing. I had all but lost hope until I listened to your words and looked into your eyes and saw pride. Pride in America that was also strong enough for me to feel. I knew you would be elected because I knew that I couldn't be the only one to feel the strength and pride you give us.

I pray that an assassin's bullet should never find its mark. We need a President like you, not a memorial.

Respectfully,

An American Citizen

Robert V. Peterson
