Dear Mr. Spencer:

Thank you very much for your recent letter which included copies of the Western Horseman magazine. We found them very enjoyable and will share them with people on the White House staff. They were very well done and we congratulate you on your effort.

Sincerely,

Lou Gerig
Director of Media Liaison

Dear Mr. President:

Knowing your interest in horses, ranching and the American west, we are happy to send you a subscription to The Western Horseman magazine. We also know you will not have much time for pleasure reading, but we hope these pages might help to stir up memories of the scent of sage and pine needles, saddle soap and horses, clear streams and high country air.

We are sending you, also, a Western Horseman calendar, and feel certain you will enjoy seeing the large full-color pictures of today's cowboys at work on some of the big ranches of the west. ^{not incl}

We're all backing you, and pulling for you. We wish you every success in the tremendous job of leading this great country.

Most sincerely,

DICK SPENCER
