Dear President Reagan,

I was very moved by your message, which I received from the embassy on the 18th March 1981.

I would like to send you and your wife a little present from Bristol with my best wishes for a Happy Easter.

I would be most grateful if you would send me a photograph of yourself with a signature addressed to me.

If you are coming to Great Britain, I would be very happy to meet you in your embassy.

With all good wishes for you and your wife.

Yours gratefully,
Baroness Alexandra Von Stenglin.

*Get well, thank God your operation was successful.
Heartfelt wishes for your recovery.*

Dear President Reagan,

I hope you get better soon and send my best regards to James Brady, Tim Mearthy, and the one police man. I was shocked when I found out about the shooting. I first found out when I got home from school. I turned on the tv right away to hear how the conditions on you and the rest of them who were shot. I hope you all get well soon. I hope you like the jellybeans.

Your friend,
Noël Curtis
