President Reagan,
 here is a jar of Jelly Beans for you to enjoy. Even if they don't let you have any for fear of there being something in them, I hope you will see them to remind you where you can get well soon as we can't do it to get well see them, soon as I say to say that you are not Jelly Beans Jelly Beans. They are not Science Beans Jelly Beans. This is a first but "Boy" are they good. They are a first but they to sell them. I sure hope so as we item, and they are a "hot" (I sure hope so as we have 480 lbs to sell).
 Let Well you.
 we need you.
 Carolyn.

Everyone and everything is waiting for you to feel better!

Dear Mr. President,

I am sending you this bottle of miraculous water from the shrine at Lourdes. I know it will help you to regain health and strength quickly, as it has done for so many.

Let me identify myself - I am the widow of a disabled veteran who was a 33 year employee of the V.A. Regional Office, J. W. H. Bldg, Boston.

My dear husband endured 30 years of pain, due to operations and treatments of war wounds, and was retired from V.A. only three weeks before his death, so I know what you and your family have been enduring this last two weeks.

Although I have been provided for through his retirement pension, no amount could make up for his loss, so I can share your Nancy's worry and fear, as we had a love story and marriage such as you have.

I wish you a swift and complete recovery and God's blessing and inspiration to make the right decisions to restore our country to its full glory and honor.

Sincerely,
Mary E. Fagan

Dear Mr. President,
I am very distressed to hear of your accident and send you my sincerest sympathy.

I was last October the first time visiting the United States and also I was very happy to hear, when you was winning the elections.
On some German-news papers I read that you like to eat sweets.

So I want to send you
