Letters handed to Dr. Robison

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 5, 1983

Dear Friends:

I want you to know that I join with you in rejoicing at Lidia's recent departure from the Soviet Union. We are hopeful that all of you will soon be able to join her in a land where you may freely express and practice your deeply-held religious beliefs.

Dr. Olin Robison, the bearer of this letter, is one whom you know and respect as a wise and honorable man who has the deepest regard for your welfare. Let me tell you that he also has my full confidence and support. I commend his advice to you and urge you to accept it.

This letter also provides me the opportunity to thank you for the lovely embroidered picture that you sent to Nancy and me as a Christmas gift. We very much appreciated your thoughtfulness.

In conclusion, I wish to reiterate my full support for your desire to emigrate and to serve God as you choose. I pray that these desires may soon be realized for all of you. Godspeed!

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

DECLASSIFIED

White House Guidelines, August 23, 1997

By TCB NARA, Date 12/18/15

Mr. President,

Subject: Launching of the Pentacostalist
Mission

This is a direct & personal request by George S.

George Shultz has talked to the emissary who is well acquainted with the Pentacostals, and who is willing to go to Moscow to persuade them to leave the Embassy, return to their homes and apply for visas.

The emissary, Dr. Robison, believes his position would be strengthened with the family if he could say "I saw the President and he sent me to see you." Thus George would like to bring him over for a handshake just before your 2:00 p.m. meeting today.

OK

President approved and met with him at about 2:00 p.m. 5 April.
