THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 27, 1985

MEETING WITH EDWARD J. ROLLINS

Date: Monday, September 30, 1985

Location: Oval Office

Time: 4:45 p.m.

From: Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr. MED

I. PURPOSE

To bid farewell to a member of your senior staff.

II. BACKGROUND

Ed Rollins has most recently been serving as a member of your senior staff since January of this year. Ed Rollins, also a Californian, has worked for you since the 1980 campaign both in campaign roles and here at the White House. He began at the White House as Lyn Nofziger's deputy in 1981 and subsequently directed Political Affairs. Ed left the White House in October of 1983 to direct your re-election effort and remained in that position for the duration, completing what proved to be the most successful national campaign in history.

Ed is leaving the White House to form the Washington office of the Sacramento-based consulting firm "Russo, Watts and Rollins."
