THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 8, 1985

Dear Mr. Torricelli:

Thank you for sharing with us your views and those of your constituents concerning the President's State Visit to the Federal Republic of Germany. We fully understand the depth of your concerns and assure you the President's feelings about the crimes against humanity perpetrated by the Nazi regime are no less deeply felt. President Reagan has attempted to make absolutely clear during his visit the revulsion all Americans feel for the horrors which were committed in the name of the German state and our determination not to forget them. As you know, his itinerary included a ceremony at Bergen-Belsen concentration camp in order to pay homage to all those who perished at the hands of the Nazis. As he said on the anniversary of the liberation of that camp April 21, there can and should be no absolution.

President Reagan is certain you agree that, as part of our efforts to learn from the experiences of this dark era, we must not reject opportunities for reconciliation. The President was asked by Chancellor Kohl to pay a visit to a German military cemetery in Bitburg, and he has honored that request.

For four decades, the Federal Republic of Germany has faced up to the guilt and responsibilities of its Nazi past and has, in countless ways, demonstrated concretely its commitment to democratic ideals and human rights, including standing shoulder to shoulder with us in the Alliance in defense of freedom. With particular regard to the younger generation in Germany, it is important to demonstrate that, while we continue to hold the nation responsible for its past, we do not consider them to bear individual responsibility for the crimes of Nazism.

Let me make clear that the President does not consider his appearance at Bitburg to represent an act of forgiveness for those crimes, but rather one of acknowledgment of the democratic society the German people have built. He considers this to be a positive gesture which in no way detracts from his full and heartfelt commitment to remember and honor the victims of the Holocaust and the American soldiers who gave their lives to defeat the Nazi regime and its crimes.

Sincerely,

M. B. Oglesby, Jr.
Assistant to the President

Hon. Ronald W. Reagan
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

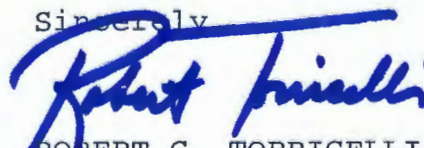

On April 17th and 18th, residents of my Congressional District in Bergen County, New Jersey, gathered together to commemorate the Holocaust and its victims. The participation of Survivors of Nazi atrocities reinforced the strong and heartfelt concern that we must never forget that so many human beings were not allowed the right to live, grow and prosper; a right that we, as Americans, are fortunate to enjoy.

It is in that spirit that over 1,000 participants in these Holocaust observances angrily put their signatures on the enclosed petitions to join the overwhelming majority of Americans in protesting your scheduled visit to the Bitburg Cemetery in West Germany. These people have asked me to forward the petitions to you and I do so without hesitation.

The point of these petitions is genuinely and poignantly put forth to you. To lay a wreath on the graves of Nazi murderers would only serve to relay a signal to those who deny this horror ever happened. Surely, the message of reconciliation you are seeking can be achieved without negating the memory of those who perished.

I wholeheartedly join with my constituents in urging you to reevaluate your position.

Sincerely,

ROBERT G. TORRICELLI
Member of Congress

Dear President Reagan:

We, the townspeople of Teaneck, New Jersey have come together to commemorate the Holocaust and all its victims. We know, full well, the horrors that were perpetrated during those dark years, and we have pledged never to forget and to learn from history. Please visit the graves of the martyrs. As one who has shown deep commitment to the memory of those Jewish and other victims who perished at the hands of the Germans, and to those American and Allied soldiers who gave their lives to fight the totalitarian menace, we beseech you to remain true to your heart. Please do not make it easy for the revisionists, Nazis and anti-semites to say it never happened. Reconciliation and remembrance of the past should not negate each other, and they will if you lay a wreath at Bitburg Cemetery.

Dear President Reagan:

Tonight, we, the people of Bergen County, New Jersey have gathered at the Jewish Community Center on the Palisades to commemorate the Holocaust and all its victims. We know, full well, the horrors that were perpetrated during those dark years, and we have pledged never to forget and to learn from history.

As one who has shown deep commitment to the memory of those Jewish and other victims who perished at the hands of the Germans, and to those American and Allied soldiers who gave their lives to fight the totalitarian menace, we beseech you to remain true to your heart. PLEASE, do not lay a wreath on the graves of the Nazi murderers. Do not give them the honor and respect of the office of the President of the world's greatest nation. Reconciliation need not take the form of ~~condemnation~~ ^{condemnation} honor.

Dear President Reagan:

Tonight, we, the people of Bergen County, New Jersey have gathered at the Jewish Community Center on the Palisades to commemorate the Holocaust and all its victims. We know, full well, the horrors that were perpetrated during those dark years, and we have pledged never to forget and to learn from history.

As one who has shown deep commitment to the memory of those Jewish and other victims who perished at the hands of the Germans, and to those American and Allied soldiers who gave their lives to fight the totalitarian menace, we beseech you to remain true to your heart. PLEASE, do not lay a wreath on the graves of the Nazi murderers. Do not give them the honor and respect of the office of the President of the world's greatest nation. Reconciliation need not take the form of ~~undo~~ honor.

Jewish Community Center on the Palisades
 411 East Clinton Avenue, Tenafly, New Jersey 07670

Tenafly, New Jersey
 April 18, 1985

Dear President Reagan:

Tonight, we, the people of Bergen County, New Jersey have gathered at the Jewish Community Center on the Palisades to commemorate the Holocaust and all its victims. We know, full well, the horrors that were perpetrated during those dark years, and we have pledged never to forget and to learn from history.

As one who has shown deep commitment to the memory of those Jewish and other victims who perished at the hands of the Germans, and to those American and Allied soldiers who gave their lives to fight the totalitarian menace, we beseech you to remain true to your heart. PLEASE, do not lay a wreath on the graves of the Nazi murderers. Do not give them the honor and respect of the office of the President of the world's greatest nation. Reconciliation need not take the form of ~~wreath~~ wreath honor.
