At the outset, let me assure you that the President remains deeply committed to full recognition of the horrors surrounding the Holocaust. He has demonstrated his continuing concern both by words and actions.

Concerning your specific question, we and the German Government fully considered the possibility of a visit to Dachau in reviewing the President's itinerary. However, due to the limited amount of time available for the bilateral portion of the President's visit to the FRG, it did not prove possible to include a visit to the Munich area. Although the President will be in the FRG for several days, most of his time will be spent in Bonn for the Seven-Nation Economic Summit and talks with President von Weizsaecker and Chancellor Kohl.

Let me reemphasize that the President fully appreciates the special significance of events related to the Holocaust during this year, when we will be marking the 40th anniversary of the end of World War II. The German Government, and Chancellor Kohl personally, share this understanding, as indicated by the Chancellor's scheduled visit to the site of the former Bergen-Belsen concentration camp on April 22, the 40th anniversary of its liberation by Allied forces. Our Ambassador to the Federal Republic, Arthur Burns, will join Chancellor Kohl -- as the President's personal representative -- at the ceremonies at Bergen-Belsen. His presence at Bergen-Belsen, particularly given Ambassador Burns' high personal prestige, will emphasize the importance which the President, and all Americans, attach to this event. Again, we appreciate your interest in this important matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Starr:

Thank you very much for your message of February 12 in which you urged that the President include a stop at Dachau in the schedule for his May visit to the Federal Republic of Germany.

At the outset, let me assure you that the President remains deeply committed to full recognition of the horrors surrounding the Holocaust. He has demonstrated his continuing concern both by words and actions.

Concerning your specific question, we and the German Government fully considered the possibility of a visit to Dachau in reviewing the President's itinerary. However, due to the limited amount of time available for the bilateral portion of the President's visit to the FRG, it did not prove possible to include a visit to the Munich area.

Although the President will be in the FRG for several days, most of his time will be spent in Bonn for the Seven-Nation Economic Summit and talks with President von Weizsaecker and Chancellor Kohl.

Let me reemphasize that the President fully appreciates the special significance of events related to the Holocaust during this year, when we will be marking the 40th anniversary of the end of World War II. The German Government, and Chancellor Kohl personally, share this understanding, as indicated by the Chancellor's scheduled visit to the site of the former Bergen-Belsen concentration camp on April 22, the 40th anniversary of its liberation by Allied forces. Our Ambassador to the Federal Republic, Arthur Burns, will join Chancellor Kohl -- as the President's personal representative -- at the ceremonies at Bergen-Belsen. His presence at Bergen-Belsen, particularly given Ambassador Burns' high personal prestige, will emphasize the importance which the President, and all Americans, attach to this event. Again, we appreciate your interest in this important matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

I'm a 23rd years young German, and Honorary Law Enforcement Officer of 15 Law Enforcement Agencies in differenc States in the USA. You visite our Country in May, and I'm very happy, that you will visite Bavaria too. Munich is a very interesting City, and the Bavarian Prime Minister is a very good host.

I think, our bavarian Country is to nice, as that you visite this Country as President and Stateman only. My success - make one, or an half day holidays. When this is possible, so I have an wounderful success for you, and I will make a little program.

When you are in Munich, you can fly with the helicopter to Griesbach. Griesbach is 160 km near Munich. Then, I will drive with you to the pretty and old City of Passau, and you are my guest for this day. Also, we can go to an traditional, bavarian restaurant, in which you are my guest for bavarian lunch or dinner. I'm sure, that this will be a very, very pretty day for you.

When this is possible, so this will be a private visit, without official Character. Also - this visit will be secret, and you can come with a Superior Agent of the Secret Service for your Security, and with a interpreter. That you can see, that Passau is a very pretty city, I have enclosed a post-card. Passau is called "The city on the three rivers", also "The bavarian Venice"!

Please write soon, when I can be your host. I will be very happy and proud. Last year, a Deputy Sheriff visited me in Griesbach, and he was very enthusiastically from the bavarian hospitality and comfortableness. I'm sure, you like it too. - I hope, to hear from you soon.

Best Regards
Wolfgang K. Hirschmann

Dear Mr. President,

Greetings from Cold West Germany! I hope all is well with Mrs. Reagan and yourself. I'm 22 years old and am on a two year commitment with an inter-denominational Christian organization named "Youth With a Mission". Including myself there are 9 adults and 7 children on our "team". We are working with the American Military Community here in Augsburg. We are involved closely with the Army Chaplaincy (although not on salary - we are all self-supporting)

The reason I'm writing is because of your up- and coming trip to West Germany in May. I had heard that it was a possibility that you would make a stop in Augsburg, to help celebrate the 2,000 year anniversary of the city. If I heard correctly (I realize that it might not be official yet) than I like to be one of the first to invite you to visit our team here. (We even have room for you and Nancy to sleep! if you had the time! :)

This is a serious invitation, of course I'll understand if you can't. I just figured that since the Bible says in James 4:2 that ~~we~~ "You have not, because you ask not" I would ask you! By the way I'm even a fellow Californian from Sacramento.

Well I realize that you're a very busy man, and I must get back to work also, so I'll close here by wishing you the very best. You are in all our prayers as you lead our great nation. May the Lord bless you.

Your friend,
Kevin Larson

(P.S. Of course I voted for you, too!)

Dear Mr. President,

During the past week a newscast stated that you would be in Bonn for a conference in the month of May.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to visit our unit, the 557th USA Artillery Group in Herborn-seelbach. The 557th USAAG is located about 3 hours driving time southeast of Bonn. We are a NATO supported remote site unit. I realize the larger military communities would have much more to offer you, but I feel you could see more of esprit de corps here where we don't have all the comforts of home. This esprit de corps extends to the close bonds of friendship which the soldiers of this community share with our German counterparts. As a NATO unit, we feel that we exemplify the true spirit of cooperation between the United States and our NATO allies. We would like you to share the close bonds of true NATO friendship and see America's finest.

We realize that we are not a part of the normal "VIP" circuit, however, even a brief visit would be a great honor.

Dear President Reagan,

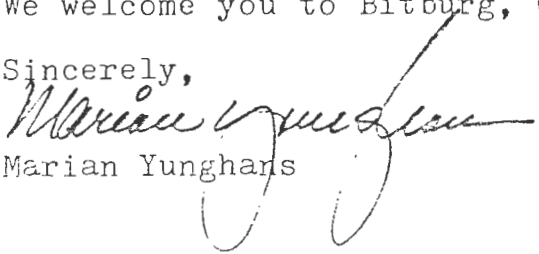

It was with the greatest of excitement that I read about your proposed visit to Bitburg Air Force Base in Germany on May 5th! As an avid supporter and Sustaining Member of the Republican National Committee, I can't help but applaud your efforts in celebrating VE Day during your upcoming European trip.

My husband lived in foxholes for an entire winter forty years ago just a few miles across the border into Luxemburg. He participated in the Jump on the Rhine as a U.S. Paratrooper. The victory of World War 11 still rings clear not only in the hearts of the Americans who fought here, but also by the German people. Scars remain but the cities have rebuilt, the economy has recovered and flourishes and the Germans are now strong allies of America. We have much to celebrate!

My husband is now a retired University Professor from Western Michigan University and I am presently teaching at Bitburg Elementary School with the Department of Defense Dependent Schools. We reside in Trier, located eighteen miles from Bitburg on the Mosel River. Trier was founded by the Romans in 16 B.C. as a supply center and base for the Roman Army of the Rhine. We invite you to be a guest at our home and to visit this very historic city. It could be a beautiful blend of German and American cultures and friendship that has flourished over the last thirty years. We can also promise you one of the finest glasses of wine from the Mosel vineyards.

We're hoping that you will be able to consider this invitation. We welcome you to Bitburg, Germany!

Sincerely,

Marian Yunghans

Dear President Reagan,

I teach a special education class at Darmstadt American Elementary School in Darmstadt Germany. Recently, we have been studying the presidency and what it means.

We would like to invite you to visit our school during your upcoming German trip. I realize given your schedule this will probably not be possible. I have explained this to the children and they do understand.

Inviting you to come was very exciting for them and they worked hard on their letters.

The child whose letter is enclosed has neurological problems and finds writing very difficult. I wanted to explain this as I know his letter is difficult to read. This however is his very best writing and worked hard to achieve it.

I ask that you please answer his letter. This is the first letter he has ever written and it would be great for him to get an answer!

I appreciate your help in this matter. I am looking forward to your trip to Germany.

I'm stationed in West Germany in the Army.
I've been in the Army since 1971.

collected

The reason that I'm writing is because on the German news today it said that in May of this year you were coming to Germany to see the Dachau concentration camp. I don't know if this is true or not but if you do come I'm sure you will not be disappointed. I've seen it and I feel everyone should see it as well.

Be sure to see the film while you're there too.

The other reason that I'm writing is, as you know Sen. Wickham was here recently and one of his stops was Ferre Barrocks in Erlangen West Germany.

He went to Range 6 in Temmenloke and seems them shoot and talked with some of the men there.

I work for Range Control here and was able to see him but could not talk with him. I know you are a Army man but I'd like you and your wife to stop by also and see our training and our Ranges. I'm sure you would be impressed.

Please try to find a little time for the men who are so far from home and their loved ones and see how hard and good they train to defend our home land.

My girlfriend says I'm crazy for writing this letter because first you will never see this letter and second because you don't have time for it!

I really hope neither is the case.
But I'll never really know if you get to see this or only your staff read it and reply. Anyway thank you for your time and I hope I will receive a reply to my letter.

You're doing a fine job and I know you will continue to do so.

Thank you again

God Bless you and your family and the United States of America
