Sir:

I am of the opinion that the president should stick to his original intention and visit only a German military cemetery, symbolizing the reconciliation between our two nations.

Nazi mistreatment of minorities has been brought to the attention of the world many times in the intervening years and should not be a focus of attention during the forthcoming state visit.

The writer is a WWII veteran with 15 months Pacific Theater (non-combat) infantry duty.

Dear President Reagan;

I applaud you for your courageous stand in the Bitburg controversy. It's about time we move the 'holocaust victim syndrome' out of the realm of Jewish exclusivity and place it squarely where it belongs: in the minds and hearts of all mankind.

Only then will we be able to prevent a reoccurrence such as that which took place at Deir Yassin a short three years after the end of the holocaust.

Holocaust memorializing reached the point of diminishing returns the moment the Jewish began exploiting it as a pro-Israeli cause.

Sincerely,

DEAR MR PRESIDENT

~~Some Matters~~
The best way to commemorate the holocaust is to be aware of those who are living under institutionalized terrorism today, especially where the victims have become the perpetrators.

Unfortunately the Germans do not have a monopoly on barbarism. 500,000 Isrelis have emigrated to the U.S. to date. Many were draft dodgers who could not stand the excesses of the Begin/Shamir government and their irresonsible invasion of Lebannon, the use of clmster bombs on a civilian population, the dehumanization of Arab refugees, to say nothing of the ongoing humiliation and oppression of Arabs on the West Bank.

We would do well to keep in mind that what made Hitler possible was his very sophisticated propoganda machine..Once he gained a few seats in the Reichstag he was able to spread Naziism much the same as Kahaneism is spreading in Israel today. I think that there is a lesson in this for the Jewish lobby and the effect it has , for better or worse, on all our lives.

I THINK YOUR INTENTION TO GO TO GERMANY FOR A 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE END OF WW II IS A GOOD ONE. THE PROSPECT OF THE UNITED STATES AND ISRAEL AGAINST THE WORLD IS NOT A HEALTHY ONE.

THANK YOU
JAMES HAGADORN

Kahane's Popularity Cr

May 1985

SUSAN POYAS

Israel Today Senior Correspondent, Israel

JERUSALEM — The growing popularity of Rabbi Meir Kahane and his openly racist preachings against the Arabs among Israel's youth has aroused alarm bells with educators who are preparing an intensive program to strengthen the Democratic values of the new generation.

Kahane, the founder of the militant Jewish Defense League in the U.S., won only 1.2 percent of the vote in last July's election, enough for one seat in the Knesset. But his support was twice as high among conscripts in the Israel Defense Forces (18 to 21 year olds) and latest opinion polls show that if the election were held now he would more than triple his parliamentary representation.

Kahane's election victory and his inroads with the youth shocked nearly all adults who regarded Israel's democracy as a matter of fact. Kahane's simplistic racist views, which advocate the forcible expulsion of all Arabs from Judea, Samaria and even Israel (if they won't leave voluntarily) is outside the Zionist consensus.

"He is a threat to the very fabric of Zionism, Israel's political system and cherished Jewish humanistic values," Dr. Arik Carmon of Tel Aviv University's Education Faculty said in an interview with Israel Today.

"Kahane served as a catalyst for the growing concern, but in fact Kahanism is a symptom of a much deeper problem," Dr. Carmon said.

A survey among 651 Israelis aged 15 to 18 conducted last September found that 15 percent held "consistently anti-Democratic views" and this jumped to about half when the issue of Arabs was involved.

Some 60 percent thought Israeli Arabs, who make up 15 percent of Israel's population, are not entitled to equal rights with the Jewish citizens and 47 percent supported reducing the rights of Israeli Arabs. Some 62 percent favored annexing Judea, Samaria and Gaza, 64 percent opposed granting the Arabs there the vote.

The survey was conducted for the Van Leer Foundation, an independent Jerusalem think tank and has been studied carefully by the Ministry of Education.

"Kahane's election to parliament legitimized thoughts previously suppressed. We must delegitimize these views," says Dr. Carmon, who is Chairman of a government commission appointed to prepare the guidelines for a program on Democratic values and processes for Israel's education system, from kindergarten to high school, as well as seminars for teachers and school principals, which will become an integral part of the curriculum.

"There is an urgent need to strengthen the education on democracy . . . because of the fact that racism has developed among a minority of the public especially among the youth," the Pedagogical Secretariat of the Education Ministry wrote in a circular to school principals, which reached Israel Today. The program will seek to clarify basic concepts of democracy, such as liberty versus equality, empathy, the human tendency towards evil (stereotyping prejudices, violence and terror) and tolerance towards minority groups and views.

"The real test of Israel's democracy is the attitude towards the Arabs minority," says Binyamin Levi, national supervisor for special projects in the education ministry.

"We must remember Israel is still a society in the making. We are only 337 years old and in the midst of forming the patterns and framework for our culture. Schools here therefore have an added burden, to prepare students to participate tomorrow in the process

Dear President Reagan -

If your Lord, Jesus Christ, could speak with you today, he would say unto you:

Do not visit the graves of the murderers of innocent men, women and children; do not go to a cemetery that contains the graves of murdered

Do not wound the hearts and souls of all those living men and women who survived the horrors perpetrated by the SS men buried at Bitburg

Be a symbol of compassion, of justice, a leader the American people can be proud of

Do not go to Bitburg

Your mission of reconciliation will be a success if you have the ^{strength} ~~wisdom~~ and ^{wisdom} ~~strength~~ the wisdom to say no to Bitburg.

Amen.

Dear Sir,

I think that I understand your frustrations for PEACE in a world that is so wicked and violent. I have two suggestions for you during your trip in West Germany.

As an Eagle Scout I was raised in a proud tradition, my experiences include living a total of six years in Germany. I was also an R.O.T.C. scholarship student and graduated from I.U.P., the Indiana University of Pennsylvania. As a first Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, I received 2 honors while assigned to duty at Hanau just west of Frankfurt, FRG. The first was an Army commendation medal for having the best C.D.A.A.C. (Community Drug and Alcohol Assistance) team and program in USAEUR and V Corps in 1976. The other was becoming a German hunter, Jäger (I have ein jäger-brief). I speak German and understand both German and American Germans. Besides I decent from both Quaker and three of the original German settlers to settle in Germantown, Pa. 1683.

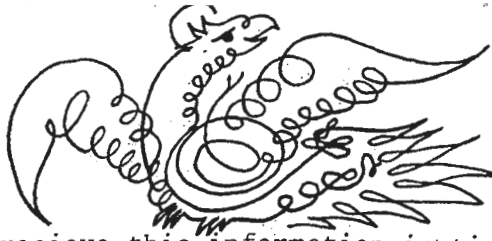

I think J.F. Kennedy was perceptive enough to sense the real frustrations and hopes of the German people including the Jewish community. Perhaps that is why he was so popular as a Berliner. I was living at (1960-63) Spangdelm Air Force Base just twenty minutes from Bitburg. So, please consider this recommendation and you to can have a bright crown before you (suddenly) leave office.

1. You can't back down, YOU MUST GO TO THE CEMETERY! but NOT IN!
Go ZU DIE KRIED HOFF aber nichts INS. (save face)

May I suggest that you lay the wreath at the entrance to the cemetery because we can't undo death or make peace with the dead only among the living and for the living.

2. Don't go to Bitburg or Bitburg Air Force Base. Go instead to Spangdelm A.F.B. they deserve a visit and they got a great fighter squadron there. My father was a sergeant in radar. Have lunch at the Officers' Club and leave at about 1300 hrs. drive slowly to the Bitburg cemetery (don't fly), arrive about 1400hrs. Give a speech not longer than one hour, use the protests to your advantage, think of this as an adventure and turn them to your side you can do it. God gave you everything that you need, the wisdom, politicians craft and now timing. Place the wreath at 1500hrs. The sun will be out and beautiful as a witness of God's approval to you. Don't let the sun go down on your change to be a great peacemaker and blessed.

in Julius Caesar*

If you don't receive this information in time then let the person who delayed this letter to you go bald. Furthermore, if you don't receive this letter or if you fail to find the courage to follow this strategy, It will rain all day on First day and trees will fall and that will give you an excuse. It will also save this honor for someone else. Have courage and believe me I know what I am telling you will help.

Now for the icing on the cake. After first day, go to the bombed (Kirche) -out Cathedral in Berlin and then without forwarning the press but allowing them to go along, go to the Prison in Eastern Germany where the Russian (WWII allies) are keeping Rudolph Hess and visit him, try to get there at noon. Surprise the East Germany authorities, remember this spiritual war and get the dead Army Major's MI unit to help assist in this special mission, go to Hess, the American President and get there by utilizing your authority as commander in chief of U.S. Forces. Go quickly once you start and get out. (don't talk to Hess for more than an hour, a half hour would be appropriate.)

Remember your theme, make peace with the living for the future not the bitter past. Rudolph Hess is a living witness and best represents the design of Hilter's new Germany, like the German people he has suffered all these years for his sins. God has keep Hess alive for this very purpose and as a physical sign of the beginning of the last years. They will begin like the (Noe's) flood began in the year of Methusal's death, (Grandfather of Noe). You to are like so many other great american fathers, and like Kennedy if you are faithful to this strategy HE will also give you a bright crown (for all your children) of your historical leadership. Mrs. Nancy Reagan should visit with Frau Hess if possible during your visit. May I also suggest that you take one Army sergeant, one Marine and a Major from the Artillery Divison in Fulda as a aid (that unit is the H.W.B.1/11th A.C.R.) APO 09146, Fulda FRG. Remember you can force your way in as commander in chief and Angel will help. All you have to do is offer you hand in peace and get ready for some tears. Don't even think about forgiveness, just respect from one old enemy for the other and the fatherly hope of peace for your represented children, if a Russian politician happens in offer him the same good intentions. AS IT IS WRITTEN SO LET IT BE,

Humbly in Christ Jesus, your servant,

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT I OBSERVED THE LECTURE ON MORALITY ON THE T.V. AT THE WHITE HOUSE. I WOULD LIKE TO ADD TO THAT A LESSON ON PRACTICALITY. To the President Mr. Reagan, Sir,

please let the german Soldiers rest in their graves. You have not to go to a graveyard, we know you like to be our friend and forget the past. The Soldiers did try to protekt me form Bolshewism and willingly did give their life for me and me homeland. I love them for it with all me heart and I donot like to see their rest in a grave disterped by dirty jewsh politics, called them dirty names and missunsed for politias. The Jwes have their Isnael and I me graves and God know I do not wish to change places. Me grave are honorable mens last rest.

Steh out out me graveyard.

Your word is all it needed to assure us that you are our friend and wish to forget the past. But I fear they will not let you, do it without blowing Fanfares.

Dear Mrs. Feinstein

not as Mayor, not as Politician Lady DL but as a Jew
I write this very personal letter to you

In regard of the President's wish to make peace with the past in a german Soldiers Graveyard.

I am in a state to curse but I know God donot like it so I am just saying hopeful Bolshewism will not come to the door of your Pension and drive you out naked as it has happens to me. But only then you would can understand why I thankful love the Soldiers in that controversy Graveyard with all me heart. They was willing to dy to protect me from that horri-ble Communism that polish and rusion Jews used to kill the Zou and the 4 Jews how created modern Russia.
It was not the german SS's choice that that Bolshewism coming from the east was a jewish creation. It presented it to them as so and in this was entirely a jewish fault. You Jews scrawning like devils in hell that the SS was a jewish enemy but forget to tell that being Bolshewics was a free jewish wish. If the Jews was not Communist and danger creators of modern Russia the SS would have no reason to fight them as a danger enemy. You was not so friendly with the Japanese cases. And that the Japanese did not dy violent in the concentrationcamps was because they was not behind the Blockade and the horrible hunger it was fight with.
The Blockade Hunger was a Holocaust also but I should have the first sorry about German Soldiers was fighting people face to face you was fighting high from the sky women, kids, sick, old, homos, churches and schools. Really nothing to be proud of. Even the Russians did find it to low. They refusal to fly Doctors, they only did give help fighting safty for the protecting fighters, men to men. I was one of the recover of Books from the sky you not Mrs Feinstein. First walk a mile in my shoes and then see of the SS not looks to you like helping Angels. I was the recover of jewish-bolshewik hate and robbery not you yet Mrs Feinstein.
This no letter will never be made public in the news even that I will try hard to find somebody how will tell the truth to the peoples here.
But nothing good can be build on a ugly foundation and that is the President to clean up. He try to get into History as a honest man not a Dollanchaser, a historysteater, he like to be a Soldier of the Idol kind.
A true friend and understanding helper. Because he need helping friends in return. On the jewish Bolshewik's mark on his White House door tomorrow listen to your Jews, voices from the long ago past come to tell me to late, to late they are inside and the President their prisoner. Lord have money. How will this time be the SS or will be a SS at all. Lord have money.
Bolshewics donot like Pensions think about well Mrs Feinstein.

Again remember the german SS did not force the Jew to be Bolshewiks, it was the Jew own free choice.

Sir -

My first, I've waited long enough before the 'paralysis' of analysis does set in. Perhaps we've waited too long, you are on your way - Godspeed and the best of luck.

We are sure your perseverance in something you believe will prove fruitful rather than wish/washing back and forth from one influencing group to another.

Am sure my opinion is as competent as many of the others being given at this time. My best and closest friend was of the Orthodox Jewish faith. We have visited Bitburg. Our son and family was stationed there, a high security area. We have lived in Germany and respect the German people. As an Air Force officer, I was down on the ground for the Battle of the Bulge. It is our understanding only about 2% of those interned at Bitburg

2. were Waffen S.S. — some of these too were conscripted. It seems the memory should be to all those that died under such bitter circumstances, that such may not happen again.

It becomes apparent the number of news media makes minute by minute nit-picking a requirement in order to be thought necessary. We all have our crosses and sympathize with those of the Jewish faith but believe history shows their financing has been the prompting and backing of military conflicts and as their military had further proven "War is Hell."

Bitterness promotes more bitterness — the war was fought with a hope for a new look to all this — after forty years
— as you have said — "if not previous occasions — if not now when?"

Sincerely,
Robert M. Whipple

P.S. Our respects to Herr Kohl and Schmidt and their family.

My dear Mr. President:-

I have used my Liberty to write Chancellor Helmut Kohl not to bring you to Kohlmesburg Cemetery in Bifburg because only living Germans who dedicate themselves to honoring the allied dead, the resistance fighters (mostly dead), the relatively few Germans who actively participated against the Nazis (mostly dead) are themselves to be honored by their vigilance as should be E.
Wiesel & Samuel Weisenthal
& others.

U.S.A. should also make it illegal to disseminate any Literature or speeches that are overtly prejudiced against any large group of nationals or those with other religious or political beliefs & which encourage violence. We understand how to differentiate between evil intent & just discussion of differences. There is at least one democratic country which is able to enforce ^{Laws vs.} these unsupported bigots & from venting their evil violent suggestions without losing their civil liberty of free speech.

Free speech is essential, but obviously bigotted propaganda must be proscribed. You see, as the victim of such bigotry is surrounded & outnumbered, his/her ability to fight back becomes ineffective as violent bigots, by open threats, bombs, assaults, nazi graffiti, threats, etc. frighten the victim away & the police as well.
Yours truly
A. J. Powell
