3316

For Immediate Release

October 28, 1982

President Reagan has invited Prime Minister Giovanni Spadolini of Italy to make the opening speech at the Conference on Free Elections during the Prime Minister's visit to Washington, November 3-4, 1982. The Prime Minister has accepted the invitation and will address the Conference on November 4.

The Conference is designed to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas on the strengthening of the electoral processes and basic democratic institutions in many countries of the world. The Conference is a direct result of the initiatives launched by President Reagan on June 8 in London to promote the growth of democracy and peace. At that time he declared, "We must take actions to assist the campaign for democracy" and announce the November meeting.

The November 4-6 Conference is being co-sponsored by the U.S. Department of State and the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research in cooperation with the United States Information Agency (USIA) and the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID).
