JP: This is an odd procedural approach. I would think we would either want to have Bud send the Tasker attached to my draft transmittal memo at Job I -- without seeking agency comment on it -- or have Walt/Dan shop it informally in the interagency process. I do not think it a good practice to circulate taskers for review. One other point -- this tasker seems awfully detailed, but maybe detail is needed.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Bob,

I agree. This is not the way to do it. Our orig. tasking at Tolb III tasks State to prepare the plan and coordinate with DOD and CIA. I don't want to let anybody off the hook.

I have not seen DOD comments but they should have gone to State. We only heard CIA comments. If they haven't they need to put them in writing to State.

I think Walt's plan is pretty good but he or Don should provide it to State getting State to send out for coordination. State should not delay ~~it~~ for total concurrence to send it to us in response to Tab III. They should send forward with comments and bracketed language as necessary.
