Dear Mrs. Hunt:

Pat Buchanan has passed along the copy of A Puritan in Babylon which you mailed to him for me with your kind note. As a great admirer of "Silent Cal," I'm delighted to have Peter Smith's biography of our nation's 30th President and your kindness in sharing it with me is indeed appreciated. I look forward to gleaning some additional gems of wisdom from Calvin Coolidge's life-story.

With my gratitude for your gesture of friendship, and with my best regards,

Sincerely,

OLIVE HUNT

August 5, 1925-

Dear Mr President-

I am sending you a copy of
"A Puritan in Babylon" by Wm Allen
White - (a Calvin Coolidge bio).
As a Coolidge fan I am sure you will find ^{it} exciting and unusually contemporary - It contains a graphic history of the Smoot-Hawley Tariff legislation & its impact on the (over)

Economic Climate - Some think it largely responsible for the Great Depression.

I loaned a copy to my friend and former boss - Bill Brock -
& I enclose copy of his comment.
I understand he used it as resource for several speeches -

I hope you enjoy it!

Sincerely
Oleu Hunt

Dear Olive:

I don't even want to apologize for treasuring A Pruitan in Babylon so much for so long. It was just too much fun, and I chewed on every word as you obviously have noted.

I even asked CB to xerox fifteen or so particularly cogent pages which have such similarity with today's newspaper. It really was fascinating, wasn't it?

At any rate, you are just a very thoughtful, and delightful person. Thanks a million. I did enjoy it, and appreciate it very much.

Very truly yours,

Your Majesty:

What a thoughtful remembrance you sent following my stay in the hospital. The videocassette, "That's Dancing," brought back fond memories of my days in Hollywood and has provided a spirited incentive to return to my full level of energy. I'm truly grateful for your generous gesture in giving me this cassette from your private collection -- and for your steadfast friendship.

Dear Mr. Kay:

I want to thank you and your staff for the shirt, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Social Security Act, which Congressman Robert Davis sent to me on your behalf.

As we observe this significant milestone in our nation's history, I indeed appreciate being remembered with your office's memento symbolizing the importance of guaranteeing the future of the Social Security trust fund. There is no more vital domestic issue than the protection of the hard-earned benefits of our nation's senior citizens.

With my best wishes to you and all the dedicated personnel you represent,

Dear Mrs. Carpenter:

You were good to think of Nancy and me and we want you to know how pleased we are by your kindness. Thank you for remembering us with the framed needlepoint which we received through Congressman Robert Walker. We're delighted with the patriotic motif, and the friendship that prompted you to share your handiwork with us is indeed appreciated.

With our best wishes,

Sincerely,
